WHAT WE’LL Learn

This lesson starts our year-long series of worshipping God. We will progress through the elements of worship, as well as missions, Advent, and Easter before this time next year. But, as we all know, how can you do something without knowing the “why”?

God, our ultimate object of worship, called His people to Himself, and showed them why He was, and is, worthy of worship. He called them, and us, out of the darkness and into the beautiful light that draws us to His heart and into His throne room to worship Him.

Just as the Israelites were pursuing Canaan as their land of milk and honey, we too are pursuing that perfect land, heaven. We, knowing that Christ has come and now lives as our Savior, have it even better than the Israelites in being able to properly worship.

Come with us as we see how God started the reason of our worship—a truly personal relationship with a truly personal God.
