Jesus sent Peter and John to the city to prepare for the Passover meal. He told them to follow a man carrying a jar of water.

He would show them a large room where they could meet.

Everything happened as Jesus said. Jesus and the 12 disciples sat down to dinner. Jesus said that one of them, who “dipped his food in the same bowl” as He, would betray Him. After dinner they sang a hymn and went out to the Mount of Olives.

Find the words
that are underlined.
