FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. – As Florida surpasses more than 10.1 million Floridians vaccinated, COVID-19 vaccinations are being transitioned to a locally-led effort through primary care providers, retail and pharmacy locations, county health departments under the Florida Department of Health and local governments. As a part of this transition, the Broward County Health Department will coordinate with local community providers to ensure vaccine access for all Floridians.

A complete list of more than 2,000 alternate locations offering the COVID-19 vaccine is available here.

Additionally, a list of DOH-Broward vaccination sites is available here.

A list of current state-supported COVID-19 vaccination sites in Broward County and their transition dates is below:
