WEEKLY MESSAGE

Dear Friends,

Thank you all for a beautiful celebration of ministry that affirmed my gifts and leadership. The whole weekend was filled with such love and support, and I truly appreciate each of you who came to my Commissioning in Mesa. What an incredible experience to be surrounded by family, mentors, teachers and congregation members cheering on this milestone in my life.

Last Sunday was amazing! From meaningful worship with youth readers and the CE team to the congregation's laying on of hands and then the fellowship afterward with beautiful decorations, delicious food, and so many smiling faces. It was a day I will always cherish.

From the moment I arrived at Immanuel, this place has felt like home, exactly where I was meant to be. That feeling couldn't be more true today and I look forward to serving in ministry together for many years to come.

Thank you again,
Pastor Kris
