Discovering and displaying Christ in here and out there

WEEKLY MESSAGE

Dear Immanuel Family,

Our sermon message this week is both championed and cringeworthy to most modern Christians. It is Matthew 25:31-46; the separation of the sheep from the goats.

We really do love the encouragement to help people, to serve others, to clothe those who are naked, to welcome strangers, and to visit the sick and imprisoned. We like the blessing that Jesus offers; to be blessed by Jesus' father and welcomed into the place God has prepared for us.

Except this conversation has two halves, and the second half should make us very uncomfortable. There are sheep and there are goats. And neither of them really knows which is which. Both are surprised by what they hear and who Jesus the King decides is who.

Both are expected to care for others; both are surprised that they have failed to care for the King. Both are surprised at what caring for the King actually looks like. To bring drink and food and care to the "least of these" is to do this for Jesus. The question of this blessing all comes down to whose terms are these things being done? What does loving and caring for and feeding others look like? And who are "the least of these?" They are members of Jesus' family; sisters and brothers. (v.40)

This second half is the hardest for the modern Christian. The modern church proclaims, "Jesus died for all." However, here Jesus also says, "Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels." (v.41)

The difference between the sheep and goats are the ones who bear the gospel as their living identity, and those who want to do Christian when it suits us. If we say peace be with you on Sunday and during the week we lose sight God, what peace were we talking about?

The difference between the sheep and the goats is what they produce. The people of the world, angry and scared, point fingers, and judge, and fight to protect creation and even God. They call sin - sin. The true Christian is affected by all the same things and may look very similar at times. But the Christian who has truly been forgiven, when they call a sin a sin, they call it from a place of compassion.

You have sinned. Me too. And it grinds my soul to dust. But I've been saved from my sin by the one who formed us from the dust of the earth. Come with me, I know the way to the one who can make all things new. The difference is not even what we do, it is the one for whom we do it; as done unto the King of King, Christ Jesus himself.

Sincerely Yours in This Shared Love of Christ,
Pastor Duane

NEWS AND EVENTS

Let's Build Together 2027 – We are off to a strong start to our stewardship season! Last Sunday we received 31 Estimate of Giving cards totaling $194,290. Of those, six were new commitments and 13 were increased commitments from last year. This is an incredible blessing for Immanuel's mission in the coming year.

To give you some perspective, last year we received 38 Estimate of Giving cards totaling $209,184 on Commitment Sunday, November 16 and our final total was 64 commitments for a total of $324,395. As you can see, we still have a way to go to meet our goals for the coming year.

Immanuel continues to be a place where people find belonging, encouragement and purpose. Your generous giving allows Immanuel to care for one another and our neighbors, to be a welcoming church community for all, to keep our mission strong and be a witness to Christ's love in our actions in here and out there.

Please, continue to prayerfully consider your offerings of time, talents, and treasures as we continue to build together at this place, our church home.
