"The arc of the moral universe is long, but it bends toward justice"

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Join us for a day of inspiration and action in memory of Dr. Martin Luther King.

We will learn about immigration issues in our community and our country, with hands-on activities for children of all age groups. Adults and teens are invited to hear a panel of speakers from organizations doing front-line work on immigration issues in White Plains and at the border. This day will be a launch to future learning and action connected to immigration and refugees.

Panel Speakers:

- Marti Michaels, on working with refugees at the U.S.-Mexico border;
- Lori Hosp, Board Member and Amy Robertson, Program Officer at Hearts and Homes for Refugees;
- Jennifer Hernandez, lead organizer at Make the Road NY;
- Robin Bikkal, president emeritus at El Centro Hispano

Program is free. Please RSVP (link on the TIC website homepage).
