

J-FEST presents...

Dr. Maurice Elias

March 2, 2017

7:30 PM

Most people want to help their children grow up to be mensches, but this is not easy in today's world. Yet the long-standing culture, beliefs, and values of Jewish tradition offer amazing practical guidance in how to turn many of the "oys" of parenting into the "joys" of parenting.

---

Maurice J. Elias, PhD, is Professor, Psychology Department, Rutgers University, a contributing faculty member at the Rutgers Department of Jewish Studies, and Director of Rutgers Social-Emotional and Character Development Lab. Dr. Elias is a licensed psychologist in New Jersey and writes a blog on Social-Emotional and Character Development for the George Lucas Educational Foundation at www.edutopia.org.

For more information, contact Nancy Parkes at 914-948-2800, x143, or n.parkes@templeisraelcenter.org.

Parenting can be puzzling.

J-FEST helps you put the pieces together.