

MAINERULEOFLAW.ORG

JOIN US FOR A PUBLIC FORUM

Standing up for the Rule of Law: How do we save it?

October 14
7:00p.m.

Hannaford Hall
88 Bedford Street
Portland Maine
Free Parking in Garage

Opening Remarks

Governor Janet T. Mills, Governor Janet T. Mills, Maine's first female governor and former Attorney General, has built her career on a commitment to justice and public service. A former prosecutor and the first woman elected District Attorney in New England, she has championed consumer protection, healthcare access, and bipartisan problem-solving.

Featuring Keynote Speaker

Noah Feldman, a Harvard Law Professor, national expert on constitutional law and democratic governance, and recognized for his exceptional ability to explain legal concepts to the public. He will speak on what is and is not the Rule of Law, how it is foundational to our constitutional democracy and system of equal justice for all, what is a challenge to the Rule of Law, and what we lawyers and all Mainers can and must do to defend and strengthen it.

Panelists

Aaron Frey

Attorney General of Maine

Carol Garvan

Legal Director of The ACLU of Maine

Susan Faunce

President of the Maine State Bar Association

Media Sponsor

The Maine Monitor

The event will be free of charge, but please consider a generous donation at:
gofundme.com/f/support-forum-on-standing-up-for-the-rule-of-law-save-it

Co-Sponsors

ACLU Maine

Cumberland Bar Association

Maine AFL-CIO

Maine League of Women's Voters

Maine Chapter of Federal Bar Association

Maine Council of Churches

Maine Employment Lawyers Association

Maine Justice Foundation

Maine State Bar Association

Maine State Employees Association

Maine Trial Lawyers Association

 We are dedicated to protecting due process and the right to independent counsel for all, and the rule of law, not rule by the powerful.

live stream the event

Learn More: MAINERULEOFLAW.ORG