Headway: The Voice of Brain Injury

OCTOBER 2020 EDITION

October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Domestic Violence Awareness Month is important to us at the Brain Injury Association of Virginia because we know how strong the relationship between traumatic brain injury and domestic violence is. Our commitment to bringing awareness to domestic violence and brain injury has never been stronger - our summer intern, Danielle, developed several resources for domestic violence programs focused on brain injury screening and coordinated a 4-part Facebook Live series, which you can watch by clicking the button below. In the coming weeks, we hope to announce even more exciting news about our commitment to this topic. WATCH NOW
