Rabbi Paysach Krohn is a fifth-generation Mohel whose services are sought out by thousands yearly. He has authored the Artscroll Brit Milah anthology on the laws and customs of circumcision. Rabbi Krohn is also a world-renowned lecturer and educator. His family's close relationship with the famous Maggid of Yerushalayim, Rabbi Shalom Schwadron, set Rabbi Krohn on his own unique path as a contemporary Maggid. In that role, he travels the globe inspiring audiences with lectures full of Torah wisdom, humor and warmth. Rabbi Krohn's talks are interwoven with moving stories that highlight and reinforce his ethical and spiritual insights. His multi-volume 'Maggid' series (Artscroll) has become a modern day classic.
