Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation focus groups

We're looking for professionals in the Early Childhood Mental Health (ECMH) field—from consultants to supervisors, subject matter experts, and other stakeholders—to take part in focus groups for the purpose of informing an environmental scan of trainings and professional development opportunities for the ECMH workforce in Colorado.

Your feedback will help inform the Office of Early Childhood's efforts to make Early Childhood Mental Health services more equitable and accessible to all families across the state.

Focus group participants will be eligible for compensation!
