2020 GEORGE ORDWAY SCHOLARSHIP

The Connecticut Roofing Contractors Association's George Ordway Scholarship is open to students seeking post secondary careers. Applicants must be the children of owners and/or employees of CRCA member companies. The scholarship is open to entering freshman and undergraduate students. The scholarship will be in an amount determined annually by the Connecticut Roofing Contractors Association Scholarship Committee.

Selection will be based on academic goals as stated by the applicant, academic achievement, and involvement in extra-curricular and community activities. All applications must be accompanied by an academic transcript from the educational institute in which the candidate is currently enrolled. If the candidate is entering a different educational institution as of September of the current year, a letter of acceptance to that institution must accompany the application.

Applicants must have a demonstrated leadership potential and be of good character. Financial need is not a primary factor. Completed applications must be submitted by June 30, 2020 to the Connecticut Roofing Contractors Association, One Regency Drive, PO Box 30, Bloomfield, CT 06002 or emailed to info@crcainc.org.

IMPORTANT!

The application must be complete and submitted with the essay for it to be reviewed by the Connecticut Roofing Contractors Association Scholarship Committee no later than June 30, 2020.

- A completed application.
- An essay on your goals, explaining how you hope to obtain these goals and why you would like to have this scholarship.
- High school transcripts and college acceptance letter (for incoming freshman applicants or transfer students) or college transcripts for current undergraduate students.
