

RUTGERS SCHOOL OF LAW-NEWARK
FEDERAL TAX CLINIC

ATTENTION: LOW INCOME TAXPAYERS
FREE CONSULTATION

If you do not already have a representative, law students at the Rutgers School of Law-Newark are authorized to represent you, without charge, in disputes with the Internal Revenue Service. The students, under the direct supervision of the Clinic's Co-Director, can assist you in the following areas:

1. An I.R.S. audit of your return.
2. A conference with an I.R.S. Appeals Officer or I.R.S. District Counsel.
3. A trial before the U.S. Tax Court.

Our goal is to assist taxpayers who would otherwise not be able to obtain legal representation.

For further information, please contact the Clinic secretary at (973) 353-1685.
