

Free Tools for Church Leaders

Running the day-to-day administration of a local church or ministry often stretches both time and budget. Thankfully, there are several high-quality free ministry (or nonprofit-discounted) tools available to help ministry leaders with design, accounting, presentations, communication, and overall administration. The General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA) has roundup of some of the most useful tools that can help your ministry run more smoothly. Click here to learn more
