

SCS SPIRIT WEEK

3/30/20 - 4/3/20

Time to show that SCS spirit again! Take a picture in your spirit day outfit or activity and share it to spread that SCS cheer!

Monday

GET YOUR BODY MOVING DAY

Wear : Your favorite sports attire

Do: Get active today by challenging yourself or a family member to a game (This could be basketball, jump rope, soccer, tossing the football, etc. The choice is yours!)

Tuesday

GATORS STAND TOGETHER

Wear blue and gold today or your school uniform to represent our SCS family standing strong together.

Do: Reach out to a fellow gator today to let them know you are thinking about them.

Wednesday

THIS TOO SHALL PASS- OUR FUTURE REMAINS BRIGHT

Wear bright colors to represent our future remaining bright.

7th Graders- wear your high school attire today! If you do not have any high school attire make a sign with the high school you will be attending and take a picture with your sign and share it! We are so proud of all of you for making it into your high schools!

Do: Virtually attend our 9:00 AM school Mass this morning. Also, practice positive statements today (We will get through this, we got this, I am proud of myself today,

Thursday

A HERO IN US ALL

Wear your favorite superhero costume or find something to represent a real-life hero right now such as our doctors, nurses, first responders, etc.

Do something kind for someone in your family today.

Friday

OUR FAITH IS STRONGER THAN CORONA

Wear all the purple you can find today in honor of the virtue Faith and our time in Lent.

Do: Make a gratitude list and spend some time in prayer today with God. Pray for everyone's health during this time and talk with God about any worries you may have. Don't forget to thank God for the things on your gratitude list!
