Old Business:

1. Fellowship Hall Progress Report—by Leanne: new cabinets have been moved into the room-- thanks again to Gordo Anderson for all his time and expertise on this project; new mini-split has been installed and is working well.
2. "Cottage Meetings" Report by Mike, Randy, Yvette, Jeff and Leanne; 2 meetings have been held-- June 10th at Homa's at 7 pm, and June 17th at Herrick's at 4 pm. Meetings were a very positive experience, and we will be recommending them to those who have not attended. More meetings will be held soon.
3. Spring Clean-Up Report by Eve—gardens look great thanks to Diane Hall and Charlotte Calhoun; ditches are mowed thanks to Jeff Stark, yards are mowed thanks to Hokanson kids; kitchen needs cleaning before July 6th Ice Cream Social—volunteers needed.
4. Camp Scholarships Update Report—we haven't heard yet if any kids are interested; we still need to set up a committee for reviewing applications for next year.
5. Ice-cream Social plans July 6th--report by Eve--$135 has already been donated towards the expenses; volunteers are needed to make toppings; sign-up sheets for serving and clean-up will be available soon. Thanks to Eve Erickson and Karen Novachek for organizing this fundraiser!

New Business:

1. Genesis donation—is being deleted since there has not been any response from Genesis.
2. June 22nd--Four Churches Meeting and Potluck at Cornucopia Town Hall; Immanuel is to bring desserts. Service starts at 10:30 am at the Community Center.
3. Additional Items of Interest:
 - July 14th is the next meeting for "100 Who Care" vote—Thanks to Yvette for being our emissary, and she appreciates input on which 501(c)3 organization to vote for—please email or text her. Check the "100 Who Care" website for more information.

- July 29th is the Pride Worship Service & Potluck at the Washburn Meditation Center.

Next Meeting: Wednesday, July 16, 2025, 5:45-6:30 pm; Joint meeting was postponed until then and will meet at Immanuel and on Zoom from 6:30-7:00 pm.
