

Welcome Message

The Brazil-Canada Chamber of Commerce (BCCC) extends a warm welcome to Mr. Eric Walsh on his appointment as Canada's Ambassador to the Federative Republic of Brazil.

At a time when the Brazil–Canada relationship continues to deepen and grow in strategic importance, Ambassador Walsh's extensive diplomatic experience and global perspective will be invaluable in advancing bilateral cooperation across key sectors, including trade, investment, innovation, and sustainable development.

As an organization committed to strengthening connections between our two countries, the BCCC looks forward to engaging closely with Ambassador Walsh and the Embassy of Canada in Brazil to further promote dialogue, foster meaningful partnerships, and unlock new opportunities for our members and the broader business community.

We wish Ambassador Walsh every success in his new role and a productive tenure in Brazil.

The BCCC also extends its sincere appreciation to Ambassador Emmanuel Kamarianakis for his leadership and contributions during his tenure, which have strengthened ties between Canada and Brazil.

Peter Hawkins and Daniel Ricica, Co-Chairs of the BCCC

