Laura Sheahen

Public Relations Specialist for the
Ruth Enlow Library of Garrett County

Her favorite food is chocolate and your chocolate is not safe near her! Keep it locked up.

She grew up in Maryland and loves eating crabs—but slightly prefers snow crabs to dungarees.

She loves watching student groups visit and loves finding out what books the kids want.

Her family visited Swallow Falls almost every summer when she was growing up, and she played in the cave screened by the waterfall.

She studied Russian at UMD-College Park, but doesn't remember too much.

One of her favorite authors is Edith Wharton. She's a big fan of Wharton's short stories, including the ghost stories.
