

Hear the Concordia Choir in Concert at Our Savior Lutheran Church

The Concordia Choir is the flagship choral ensemble at Concordia University Irvine. The talented ensemble of over fifty voices is known for its expressive singing and innovative programming. Under the direction of Dr. Michael Busch, this outstanding choir will present a unique blend of music inspired by classical traditions and contemporary works. Much of their concert features compelling music composed within the last five years. Featured composers for their 2025 program include Bach, Beethoven, and Byrd, with Daugirdas, Hzzards, Kirchner, Forrest, and Bob Dylan. For more information, visit cui.edu/gomusic.
