

We are devastated to share that Ilya Sosansky, a graduate of AMIT Technology High School, was killed in the Jerusalem terrorist attack that took place last Friday, International Holocaust Remembrance Day. AMIT alumnus Ilya Sosansky was a beloved, popular DJ. His friends described him as a young man filled with a joy for life, who could cheer up anyone. Adi Yona referred to Ilya as, "A charm, a walking smile, a good soul who only did good."

Abir Kara, a manager at Sosansky's place of work, said Ilya was "A charming boy, talented, full of joie de vivre, loving people, with a lot of modesty and humility."

Our AMIT family embraces Ilya's family at this heartbreaking time, and we pray for the speedy recovery of all those who were wounded in Israel's largest terrorist attack since 2008.
