A Blessed Sunday & Welcome to All

Whether at home or in-person, we are so glad you have joined us for worship this evening, especially if you are new or visiting!

Today: For the Feast of All Saints

We invite you to write the name of a departed loved one or beloved saint on a card, and attach it on the ribbon on the walls of the sanctuary. Cards and pens are on the table at the back of the sanctuary. If you have brought a photograph, attach it to the card with their name. We remember that we are surrounded by a great cloud of witnesses.

Children of all ages are welcome in the service. We welcome little voices and exploration. There are child-friendly activities on a table in the back of the sanctuary should you want them.

All are welcome to receive communion. At this service, we gather around the altar after the Eucharistic Prayer and pass the bread and wine around the circle. See more detailed instructions in the Distribution of Communion notes in the service. The presider will dismiss everyone with the words "Go in peace."

Offerings. You may make a donation by placing cash or checks in the offering plate, or you may also give online via the link on our website, or simply scan the QR code below. We are grateful for your support!

All-gender restrooms are located at the end of the hallway off the back of the sanctuary.

If you are participating via Zoom, please know that you are as much a part of our worship today as those in the church! We hope you participate fully, sing loudly, and use the chat function to greet one another and add prayers.

If you have the pre-consecrated sacrament at home, join in the communion after the invitation. If you are at home and do not have the sacrament, the prayer for a spiritual communion is printed in the bulletin.

Welcome to all our visitors!

Please introduce yourself and if you'd like more information, fill out a visitor's card in the pew racks. You can also email Parish Administrator Jen Luna administrator@ccpk.org, or call us at 301-942-4673. We'd be happy to connect with you, and if you wish, add you to our weekly e-newsletter the Christ Church Connection. Visit our website at www.christchurchkensington.org.

We are better for your presence with us today,
and would love to get to know you.

Liturgy of the Word

Prelude Nocturne in Eb Major, Op. 9, No. 2 Chopin

Welcome

Opening Hymn #287 (vv. 1-3) For All the Saints

Opening Acclamation

Presider Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.
People Glory to God for ever and ever.

The Collect of the Day

Presider God dwells in you.
People And also in you.
Presider Let us pray.

God of unfailing light, in your realm of glory the poor are blessed, the hungry filled, and every tear is wiped away. Strengthened by this vision, may we follow in the way of holiness that your Son made known in life and death. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Revelation Revelation 7:9-17

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing, "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

"For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-10, 22 Benedicam Dominum Read responsively by half verse

1 I will bless the LORD at all times; *
the praise of God shall ever be in my mouth.
2 I will glory in the LORD; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.
3 Proclaim with me the greatness of the LORD; *
let us exalt the name of God together.
4 I sought the LORD, who answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.
5 Look upon God and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.
6 I called in my affliction and the LORD heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.
7 The angel of the LORD encompasses those who fear God, *
and will deliver them.

8 Taste and see that the LORD is good; *
happy are they who trust in God!

9 Fear the LORD, you saints of God, *
for those who fear God lack nothing.

10 The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
but those who seek the LORD lack nothing that is good.

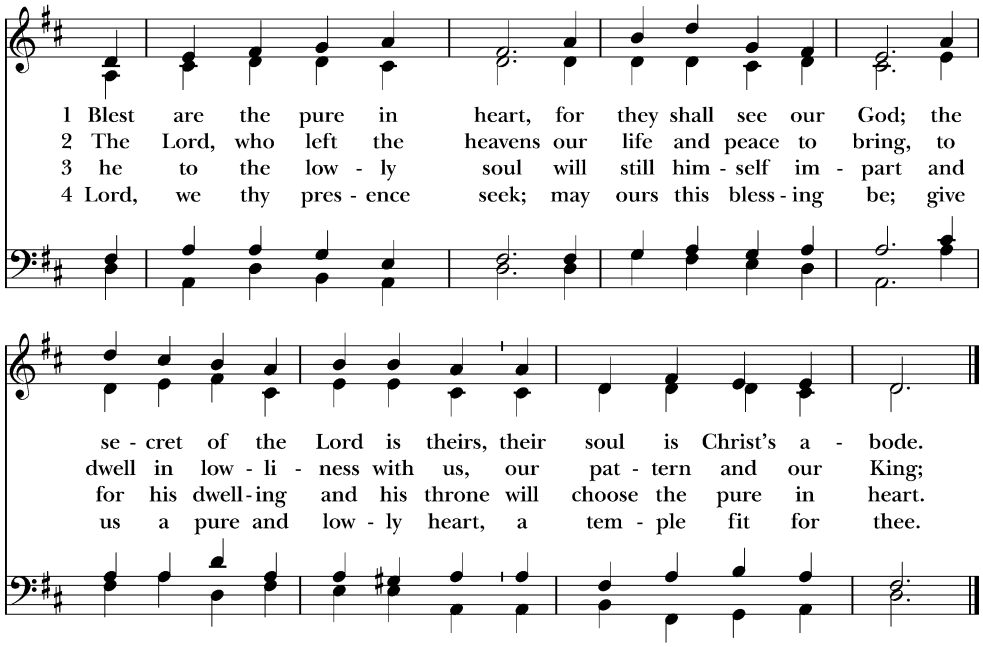

22 O LORD, you ransom the life of your servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in you.

A Reading from the First Letter of John 1 John 3:1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn #656 Blest Are the Pure in Heart

Words: Sts. 1 and 3, John Keble (1792-1866), alt.; sts. 2 and 4, William John Hall (1793-1861), alt. Music: Franconia, melody Johann Balthasar König (1691-1758); adapt. and harm. William Henry Havergal (1793-1870).

The Gospel Matthew 5:1-12

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.
"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Reflection

The Creed

We believe in God the Creator,
by whom every person in heaven and earth is named.
We believe in God the Son,
who lives in our hearts through faith,
and fills us with his love.
We believe in God the Holy Spirit,
who strengthens us with power from on high.
We believe in one God:
Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

As we pray together for the church and the world, our response is “Hear our prayer.”

A brief silence

For the gift of life, O Lord, we give you thanks. Infuse us with your light, and make us instruments of that life-giving light.
O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

For all who live with fear, anxiety and uncertainty. Comfort and strengthen them, we pray, that they may know the healing power of your love.
O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

For the leaders of nations and all who are in positions of political authority, that they may hear your voice above all others and act in such a way that brings about healing and reconciliation.
O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

For our electoral process, for those who cast votes and those who labor to make our elections possible. Protect voters from intimidation and election workers from threats. May every citizen's voice be heard and counted. Guard us from turning political disagreement into contempt, fear, or violence. Give all candidates and their supporters humility in victory and grace in defeat, and whatever the results, may we move forward together for the common good.
O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

For our enemies, the ones for whom we would rather not pray, and for ourselves: lead us from prejudice to truth; deliver us from hatred and revenge; give us courage to overcome our fears and build bridges of love,
O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

For those who mourn and wonder, "O God, where were you?" May they know your presence, and the comfort of our care.
O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

For all prisoners and refugees, for the homeless and destitute, the lost, the lonely and the sick, particularly those in need of healing in our parish, Terri, Ethan, Bonnie, Anne, Susie, Claudia, Carl, Diane, Ollie, Phil, America, Lissa, Betsy, Donna, Sara, and Cindy.

Your prayers for healing are invited.

O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

We remember all who now rest from their labors, those killed in gun violence, in war, in disasters natural and human made, and those we name before you now, on our lips or in our hearts,

We will keep silence for a time during which you are invited to come forward and light a candle to remember those who have died. If you are worshipping on Zoom, you may want to light a candle at home.

Keep us in fellowship with all your saints and bring us at last to the joy of your heavenly kingdom.

O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

We give you thanks for the blessings of this life, large and small.

Your thanksgivings are invited.

O God of mercy, hear our prayer.

Presider adds this or another concluding collect.
God of peace, let us your people know, that at the heart of turbulence there is an inner calm that comes from faith in you. Keep us from being content with things as they are, that from this central peace there may come a creative compassion, a thirst for justice, and a willingness to give of ourselves in the spirit of Christ. Amen.

Confession & Absolution

Let us confess our sins to God.

A moment of silence.

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider offers absolution.

The Peace
Presider The Peace of Christ be always with you.
People And also with you.

Announcements

The Holy Communion

Offertory Sentence

Offertory Voluntary Simple Gifts American Folk Tune

The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer 1 Enriching Our Worship

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

As we gather around your table, we lift up those who have gone before us, now dwelling with the great communion of saints…

The names of those members who have died, or those remembered in our prayers since last All Saints Day are read. At the conclusion of the recitation, you are invited to add your prayers for the departed.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

The Sanctus Land of Rest

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love. You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ.

Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world.

Bring us into the everlasting heritage of all your children, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and Invitation to Communion

The presider breaks the bread.

Presider	We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
People	We who are many are one body, for we all share one bread.
Presider	The Gifts of God for the People of God, holy food for holy people.

All are welcome to receive communion at Christ Church!
At this service we gather in a circle around the altar and pass the bread and wine to one another. When you give the bread to your neighbor, it is our custom to say "the body of Christ" and you may add "the bread of heaven"; with the wine, "the blood of Christ" and you may add "the cup of salvation." If you forget the words, simply pass the bread and wine with respect & love! You may either sip from the chalice or "instinct"(dip the bread in the wine). If you do not want to partake of the wine, please pass it along to the next person with the accompanying words. Gluten-free wafers are available, alert the priest. If you'd like to join the communion circle but not receive the bread and wine, cross your arms over your chest, and the priest will offer you a blessing instead. When all have received, the Presider will say "Go in Peace," and all return to your seats.

For those at home without the sacrament – A Prayer for A Spiritual Communion:
Faithful God, in the wonder of your wisdom and love, you fed your people in the wilderness with the bread of angels, and you sent Jesus to be the bread of life. Although I am not consuming the gifts of bread and wine, I thank you that I have received the sacrament of Christ's presence. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may I embody your desire and be renewed for your service, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Communion Voluntary Let Us Break Bread Together Spiritual, arr. Berry

Post Communion Prayer

God of abundance, you have fed us with the bread of life and cup of salvation; you have united us with Christ and one another; and you have made us one with all your people in heaven and on earth. Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit, that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue for ever in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing

Closing Hymn O When the Saints Go Marching In

1. Oh, when the saints - go marching in,
Oh, when the saints go marching in,
Oh, yes, I want to be in that number
When the saints go marching in.

2. Oh when the sun -
begins to shine
Oh when the sun begins to shine
Oh Lord I want to be in that number
When the sun begins to shine.

3. We'll dwell in peace -
forever more,
We'll dwell in peace forever more.
Oh, yes, I want to be in that number
And dwell in peace forever more.

Dismissal

Presider Go in peace to love and serve the Lord. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Stewardship 2027

As of October 30, we've received 43 pledges. Thank you to all who have already pledged!! We are 30% toward our goal of 140 pledges and 39% toward our financial goal of $465,000. Every gift matters and is deeply appreciated.

It is vital to Christ Church 's ability to offer meaningful worship with beautiful music, a continuum of faith and spiritual growth offerings for all ages (including a renewed youth ministry), education and advocacy opportunities to advance racial and social justice, merciful mutual aid for our immigrant neighbors, and all the many ways we are called to share God's love through our generosity and service.

Your pledges (estimates of financial giving in the coming year) allow us to create a budget that supports the church and our ministry as we follow Jesus' Way of love, peace and justice in and for the world. If you have never pledged before, please consider pledging now, and if you routinely pledge, please prayerfully consider increasing your annual pledge if possible. Mail in your pledge card, put it in the offering plate on Sunday, or pledge online using the QR code printed here.

We are so grateful for your presence & generosity!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Love in Action: Reaching Our Neighbors

Next Week - Carrot Sunday on November 8 Bring in those 2-pound bags of whole carrots! The carrots will be distributed to 300+ families through the food ministry at Iglesia Episcopal San Mateo/St. Matthew's in Hyattsville. Please consider volunteering to deliver the carrots and pack the food bags for distribution at San Mateo on Wed., November 11. Interested? Email coordinator Margaret Broe Fitzpatrick, magbroefitz@aol.com*.

Bring Thanksgiving Joy to Our Neighbors! Once again this year our parish is partnering with two local elementary schools—Arcola and Rock View—to ensure families in our community can celebrate a bountiful Thanksgiving together. More than half the students at both schools qualify for free or reduced-price meals. For many families, the extra expense of a holiday feast is a challenge. Three ways to help!

- Fill a Bag! Grab a shopping bag and shopping list from the Outreach table in the hallway at the back of the sanctuary. Take it along on your next grocery run and fill it up. Return your filled bag to church by Sunday, Nov. 15. If a full bag is beyond your budget, feel free to purchase a few items from the list. Place food donations in the baskets in the hallway at the back of the sanctuary.

- Make a monetary donation in any amount. $60 covers the costs for one bag which will include food and a grocery gift card. Envelopes for donation are on the Outreach table at church, or you can donate online through Realm.

- Donate a $25 Giant or Safeway Gift Card. Drop them in the donation box on the Outreach table!

The Packing Party will be Sunday, November 15 after the 10:00 service and everyone is encouraged to participate. Questions? Contact Claudia Deane at deanetravel@yahoo.com. Thank you for your generous support!

Food Justice DMV Assist our immigrant neighbors with essential food and supplies. Please donate infant formula (Similac, please) and diapers (of any size, but especially sizes 5 and 6). Leave them in the hallway across from the Outreach board. They will be delivered at least monthly. Note: There is currently a GREAT need for diapers.

Love in Action: Faith & Spiritual Growth

Save the Date for the Community Thanksgiving Service - Tuesday, Nov. 24, 7:30 p.m.
The Kensington /N. Chevy Chase Community Interfaith Thanksgiving Service will be held at St. Paul's United Methodist Church on Armory Avenue. Join your neighbors in giving thanks at this annual service of unity and peace!

Prime Timers – Next Meeting is November 10 The next meeting of Prime Timers (in the prime of life, however you define it!) will be held on November 10, program TBD. We will meet at 12:00 noon in the Parish Hall. You may order lunch (tuna, turkey, ham& cheese, roast beef, cold cuts or veggie - $12) or bring your own. Contact Bob Healy (roberthea@gmail.com, 202-277-4306) or Anne Chase (annechase1951@gmail.com, 202-277-5266) by Nov. 9 to order.

Love in Action: Racial & Social Justice

Next Sunday, Nov 8: Dr. Angelina Arrington, Head of School for the Bishop Walker School for Boys will give the sermon at the 10am service, and stay for a meet & greet afterward at coffee hour. Come meet this extraordinary inspirational saint!

Help our Care Pod Family! One of our care pod families is moving locally in search of lower rent, and we'd love our community's help. Consider contributing a gift card for Home Depot, Giant, Target – place in the box on Outreach table. THANK YOU!

Also needed – drivers Our care pods are looking for a few more drivers to help with food deliveries to our families on Saturday mornings. Drivers pick up the food between 8:30 and 9:30 in Silver Spring and deliver it to two nearby homes. Volunteers load the groceries, but drivers should be prepared to carry them to the homes, including a few steps. Because of the large amount of food, approximately 25-30 bags, a fair amount of cargo space is required. Contact Thea Kayne or Eva-Marie Nye for more information.

We raise to God those who are on our hearts and are in need of prayer:
