

Celebration of Holy Eucharist
Twenty-Sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Christ Episcopal Church
Kensington, Maryland
November 17, 2024
5:00 PM

A Blessed Sunday & Welcome to All

Whether at home or in-person, we are so glad you have joined us for worship this evening, especially if you are new or visiting!

Children of all ages are welcome in the service. We welcome little voices and exploration. There are child-friendly activities on a table in the back of the sanctuary should you want them.

All are welcome to receive communion. At this service, we gather around the altar after the Eucharistic Prayer and pass the basket of communion cups around the circle. The presider will dismiss everyone with the words "Go in peace."

Offerings. You may make a donation by placing cash or checks in the offering plate, or you may also give online via the link on our website, or simply scan the QR code below. We are grateful for your support!

All-gender restrooms are located at the end of the hallway off the back of the sanctuary.

If you are participating via Zoom, please know that you are as much a part of our worship today as those in the church! We hope you participate fully, sing loudly, and use the chat function to greet one another and add prayers.

If you have the pre-consecrated sacrament at home, join in the communion after the invitation. If you are at home and do not have the sacrament, the prayer for a spiritual communion is printed in the bulletin.

Welcome to all our visitors!

Please introduce yourself and if you'd like more information, fill out a visitor's card in the pew racks. You can also email Parish Administrator Jen Luna administrator@ccpk.org, or call us at 301-942-4673. We'd be happy to connect with you, and if you wish, add you to our weekly e-newsletter the Christ Church Connection. Visit our website at www.christchurchkensington.org.

We are better for your presence with us today,
and would love to get to know you.

Opening Acclamation

Presider Blessed be the one, holy and living God.

People Glory to God for ever and ever.

The Collect of the Day

Presider God dwells in you.

People And also in you.

Presider Let us pray.

Blessed Lord, who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning: Grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Savior Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

A Reading from the First Book of Samuel

1 Samuel 1:4-20

On the day when Elkanah sacrificed, he would give portions to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters; but to Hannah he gave a double portion, because he loved her, though the Lord had closed her womb. Her rival used to provoke her severely, to irritate her, because the Lord had closed her womb. So it went on year by year; as often as she went up to the house of the Lord, she used to provoke her. Therefore Hannah wept and would not eat. Her husband Elkanah said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why do you not eat? Why is your heart sad? Am I not more to you than ten sons?"

After they had eaten and drunk at Shiloh, Hannah rose and presented herself before the Lord. Now Eli the priest was sitting on the seat beside the doorpost of the temple of the Lord. She was deeply distressed and prayed to the Lord, and wept bitterly. She made this vow: "O Lord of hosts, if only you will look on the misery of your servant, and remember me, and not forget your servant, but will give to your servant a male child, then I will set him before you as a nazirite until the day of his death. He shall drink neither wine nor intoxicants, and no razor shall touch his head."

As she continued praying before the Lord, Eli observed her mouth. Hannah was praying silently; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; therefore Eli thought she was drunk. So Eli said to her, "How long will you make a drunken spectacle of yourself? Put away your wine." But Hannah answered, "No, my lord, I am a woman deeply troubled; I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I have been pouring out my soul before the Lord. Do not regard your servant as a worthless woman, for I have been speaking out of my great anxiety and vexation all this time." Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; the God of Israel grant the petition you have made to him." And she said, "Let your servant find favor in your sight." Then the woman went to her quarters, ate and drank with her husband, and her countenance was sad no longer.

They rose early in the morning and worshiped before the Lord; then they went back to their house at Ramah. Elkanah knew his wife Hannah, and the Lord remembered her. In due time Hannah conceived and bore a son. She named him Samuel, for she said, "I have asked him of the Lord."

Canticle: The Song of Hannah (1 Samuel 2:2-8)

read responsively by half verse

Hannah prayed and said,

"There is no Holy One like the LORD,
no one besides you;

there is no Rock like our God.

Talk no more so very proudly,

let not arrogance come from your mouth;

for the LORD is a God of knowledge,
and by the Lord actions are weighed.
The bows of the mighty are broken,
but the feeble gird on strength.
Those who were full have hired themselves out for bread,
but those who were hungry are fat with spoil.
The childless woman has borne seven,
while one who has many children is forlorn.
The LORD destroys and brings to life;
God brings down to Sheol and raises up.
The LORD makes poor and makes rich;
God brings low, and also exalts.
The Lord raises up the poor from the dust;
and lifts the needy from the ash heap,
to make them sit with rulers
and inherit a seat of honor.
For the pillars of the earth are the LORD's,
on which the world is set.

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews

Hebrews 10:11-14, 19-25

Every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God," and since then has been waiting "until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet." For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified.

Therefore, my friends, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh), and since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

The Gospel Mark 13:1-8

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ, according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

As Jesus came out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, “Look, Teacher, what large stones and what large buildings!” Then Jesus asked him, “Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone will be left here upon another; all will be thrown down.”

When he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately, "Tell us, when will this be, and what will be the sign that all these things are about to be accomplished?" Then Jesus began to say to them, "Beware that no one leads you astray. Many will come in my name and say, 'I am he!' and they will lead many astray. When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed; this must take place, but the end is still to come. For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will be famines. This is but the beginning of the birthpangs."

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Reflection

The Creed

We believe in God the Creator, by whom every person in heaven and earth is named.

We believe in God the Son,
who lives in our hearts through faith,
and fills us with his love.

We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high.

We believe in one God:
Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

As we pray together, our response is: Lord, hear our prayer.

For your church, its mission of reconciliation, and for all who minister in your name, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For our parish, clergy, lay leaders, staff, and parishioners, may we joyfully embrace the work to which you call us. We pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the leaders of our county, state, country, and world, that they will uphold the interests of justice, mercy, and peace; for an end to the wars in the Middle East, Ukraine, Sudan and anywhere there is violent conflict, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, hear our prayer.

For the victims of violence and those who seek to injure, oppress, or terrorize others,

we pray to the Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer.

For those in need of food, shelter, employment or purpose, we pray to the Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer.

For those in need of healing and the people who care for them,
we pray to the Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer.

For those in danger, particularly those who face danger in the service of others,
we pray to the Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer.

Your prayers for peace, safety, and healing are invited.

For those who paved the way and went before, for those who will die today,
and all who mourn, we pray to the Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer.

Your prayers for the departed are invited.

With gratitude for blessings large and small, we pray to the Lord.
Lord, hear our prayer.

Your thanksgivings are invited.

The Presider concludes with a collect.

God of peace, let us your people know, that at the heart of turbulence there is an inner calm that comes from faith in you. Keep us from being content with things as they are, that from this central peace there may come a creative compassion, a thirst for justice, and a willingness to give of ourselves in the spirit of Christ. Amen.

Confession & Absolution

Let us confess our sins.

A moment of silence

God of all mercy, we confess that we have sinned against you, opposing your will in our lives. We have denied your goodness in each other, in ourselves, and in the world you have created. We repent of the evil that enslaves us, the evil we have done, and the evil done on our behalf. Forgive, restore, and strengthen us through our Savior Jesus Christ, that we may abide in your love and serve only your will. Amen.

The Presider offers absolution.

May the God of love and power forgive you and free you from your sins, heal and strengthen you by the Spirit, and raise you to new life in Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Peace

Enriching Our Worship

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

The Sanctus

Land of Rest

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Blest is --- the one who comes

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise.

Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the New Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ.

Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice, and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and Invitation to Communion

The presider breaks the bread.

Presider Alleluia. We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

People We who are many are one body, for we all share one bread. Alleluia.

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God, holy food for holy people.

All are welcome to receive communion at Christ Church! At this service we gather in a circle around the altar and pass the sacrament to one another. You may receive the bread in open and outstretched hands and respond to receiving Communion by saying "Amen." Gluten-free wafers are available. Receiving the bread only is full participation in the Eucharist. If you'd like to join the communion circle but not receive the bread and wine, simply come forward, cross your arms over your chest, and the priest will offer you a blessing instead.

Post Communion Prayer

Holy One of blessing, fill us with strength and courage, with discernment and compassion, that we may be your instruments of justice and love in this world, that it may be on earth as it is in heaven. Amen.

Announcements for the Week of November 17, 2024

Stewardship 2025

Christ Church Stewardship 2025

As of November 15, we've received 72 pledges.

Thank you to all who have already pledged!!

Today is the day - we need 58 more pledges to meet our goal. If everyone who pledged last year made a pledge, and 4 new people pledged, we'll absolutely make our goal of 130.

walking the way of love, justice & peace

Your pledges are an estimate of your giving to the church in the coming year, which allows the vestry (church leadership) to create a budget to fund Christ Church's mission to put Love in action as we reach, grow and seek justice for neighbors near and far.

Please put your pledge card in the drop box at the back of the sanctuary, or mail it to the office. Extra pledge cards are also available in the back.

Or simply pledge online in Realm or by using the QR code below. And THANK YOU!

Next Sunday we will celebrate the generosity of the congregation with a special blessing of all your pledges.

Calendar Note:

There will not be a worship service at Christ Church on Thanksgiving Day. We encourage everyone to attend the Community Thanksgiving Service that week.

Kensington - North Chevy Chase Community Interfaith Thanksgiving Service

Tuesday, November 26 at 7:30 pm. at Temple Emanuel on Connecticut Ave. Join your neighbors in giving thanks at this annual service of unity and peace.

Love in Action: Reaching Our Neighbors

Wonderful 5 'clockers: As the days get shorter, coming to our beautiful candlelit service is a boost for the soul. Unless you are out of town, plan to come to church in person for Advent! And invite your neighbors.

Thank you to everyone who helped spread a little love and sustenance for our neighbors at Arcola Elementary and Rock View Elementary schools. Today we packed 100 bags of food. In the process of communicating about Thanksgiving, we've found out just how great the ongoing need is - so we will be collecting food to be distributed locally throughout the year. More info to follow.

Save the Date: Volunteer for Food Justice DMV at San Mateo Episcopal Church in Hyattsville on Wednesday, Dec 11th. Our plan is to volunteer monthly packing food that is then distributed to families in Montgomery and PG Counties. We will meet at 8:30am at CC and carpool together.

Love in Action: Faith & Spiritual Growth

Theology on Tap - Next Meeting Friday, November 22. Theology on Tap is a monthly meet-up for young adults (21+, including those young at heart). Join us for an evening of fellowship and discussion at the intersection of faith, life, and the world we live in. We will be meeting on November 22 from 6:30-8:30 pm at BabyCat Brewery in Kensington. Pizza from Frankly Pizza in Kensington will be provided. No RSVP is necessary. All are welcome!

Prayers for Peace - on Zoom every Thursday at Noon Pray for a peaceful end to the war in the Middle East, Ukraine, the Sudan, an end to gun violence in this country, and everywhere there is violent conflict. The service is approximately 15 minutes in length.

Bible Study, Sundays at 4:00 p.m. Join us on Zoom and in the library. Drop ins welcome. Contact Lee Puricelli with questions or requests! (leepuricelli@yahoo.com).

Faith Formation for Children at 9:30 am! Come join us downstairs for lessons and activities for Pre-K through 5th graders. Pre-K and Kindergarten will meet in the Godly Play room, 1st through 3rd grade will meet in Classroom C, and our 4th, 5th and 6th graders meet in the Gathering Room, all on the lower level. Want more info? Contact Children's Minister Ann Enkiri, sundayschool@ccpk.org.

CC Kids Connection Parents of children 10 and under, if you're not already signed up for the CC Kids Connection, please email Ann Enkiri sundayschool@ccpk.org. It's the best way to get current info on what's happening to support children and parents.

Virginia Theological Seminary is a place for lay people too! Interested in learning more about courses available at VTS? Join an online informational webinar on Thursday, November 21st at 4:00 pm and discover how taking a course at VTS can help inform and invigorate your faith. For more information, contact CC member Kurt Ellison (kellison@vts.edu) or call 703-461-1705.

We raise to God those who are on our hearts and are in need of prayer:
