5:00 PM

A Blessed Sunday & Welcome to All

Whether at home or in-person, we are so glad you have joined us for worship this evening, especially if you are new or visiting!

Children of all ages are welcome in the service. We welcome little voices and exploration. There are child-friendly activities on a table in the back of the sanctuary should you want them. On Sunday mornings, we have faith formation for PreK - 5th grade, and Junior High Youth Group at 9:30am. Nursery coverage is provided from 9:30-12:30pm.

All are welcome to receive communion. At this service, we gather around the altar after the Eucharistic Prayer and pass the bread and wine around the circle. See more detailed instructions in the Distribution of Communion notes in the service. The presider will dismiss everyone with the words "Go in peace."

Offerings. You may make a donation by placing cash or checks in the offering plate in the back of the sanctuary, or you may also give online via the link on our website, or simply scan the QR code below. We are grateful for your support!

All-gender restrooms are located at the end of the hallway off the back of the sanctuary.

If you are participating via Zoom, please know that you are as much a part of our worship today as those in the church! We hope you participate fully, sing loudly, and use the chat function to greet one another and add prayers.

If you have the pre-consecrated sacrament at home, join in the communion after the invitation. If you are at home and do not have the sacrament, the prayer for a spiritual communion is printed in the bulletin.

Welcome to all our visitors!

Please introduce yourself and if you'd like more information, fill out a visitor's card in the pew racks. You can also email Parish Administrator Jen Luna administrator@ccpk.org, or call us at 301-942-4673. We'd be happy to connect with you, and if you wish, add you to our weekly e-newsletter the Christ Church Connection. Visit our website at www.christchurchkensington.org.

We are better for your presence with us today,
and would love to get to know you.

Liturgy of the Word

Prelude

Welcome

Opening Hymn Let Streams of Living Justice

Opening Acclamation

Presider Blessed be the one, holy and living God.
People Glory to God for ever and ever.

The Collect of the Day

Presider God dwells in you.
People And also in you.
Presider Let us pray.

O God, you call us to choose between you and the false gods of this world. In the midst of the darkness of sin and death, wake us from our slumber and call us forth to greet Christ, so that with our eyes and hearts fixed on him, he may lead us to abundant life and eternal light. Amen.

A Reading from the Wisdom of Solomon Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom is radiant and unfading, and she is easily discerned by those who love her,
and is found by those who seek her.
She hastens to make herself known to those who desire her.
One who rises early to seek her will have no difficulty,
for she will be found sitting at the gate.
To fix one's thought on her is perfect understanding,
and one who is vigilant on her account will soon be free from care, because she goes about seeking those worthy of her,
and she graciously appears to them in their paths,
and meets them in every thought.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 119:9-16 read responsively

9How shall a young man cleanse his way? *
By keeping to your words.
10With my whole heart I seek you; *
let me not stray from your commandments.
11I treasure your promise in my heart, *
that I may not sin against you.
12Blessed are you, O LORD; *
instruct me in your statutes.
13With my lips will I recite *
all the judgments of your mouth.
14I have taken greater delight in the way of your decrees * than in all manner of riches.
15I will meditate on your commandments *
and give attention to your ways.
16My delight is in your statutes; *
I will not forget your word.

A Reading from Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers and sisters, about those who have died, so that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have died. For this we declare to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will by no means precede those who have died. For the Lord himself, with a cry of command, with the archangel's call and with the sound of God's trumpet, will descend from heaven, and the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up in the clouds together with them to meet the Lord in the air; and so we will be with the Lord forever. Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

Sequence Hymn LEVAS #184 Blessed Assurance

The Gospel Matthew 25:1-13

Gospeler The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "Then the kingdom of heaven will be like this. Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. When the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them; but the wise took flasks of oil with their lamps. As the bridegroom was delayed, all of them became drowsy and slept. But at midnight there was a shout, 'Look! Here is the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.' Then all those bridesmaids got up and trimmed their lamps. The foolish said to the wise, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' But the wise replied, 'No! there will not be enough for you and for us; you had better go to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.' And while they went to buy it, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went with him into the wedding banquet; and the door was shut. Later the other bridesmaids came also, saying, 'Lord, lord, open to us.' But he replied, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.' Keep awake therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour."

Gospeler The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Confession and Absolution

Let us confess our sins to God.

A moment of silence

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not cared for the earth and your creatures; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

The Presider offers Absolution

The Peace

Presider The Peace of Christ be always with you.

The Great Thanksgiving Eucharistic Prayer 3 Enriching Our Worship

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

The Sanctus Wonder, Love and Praise #858

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you called a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise.

Of your grace, you gave Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the New Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.
Rising, you restored our life.
Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ.

Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice, and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer (contemporary version. Please pray in the language, and version of your heart)

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread and Invitation to Communion
The presider breaks the bread, after a moment of silence, continues.

Presider We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.
People We who are many are one body, for we all share one bread.
Presider These are the holy gifts of God for the holy people of God.

All are welcome to receive communion at Christ Church!

At this service we gather in a circle around the altar and pass the bread and wine to one another. When you give the bread to your neighbor, it is our custom to say "the body of Christ" and you may add "the bread of heaven"; with the wine, "the blood of Christ" and you may add "the cup of salvation." If you forget the words, simply pass the bread and wine with respect & love! Gluten-free wafers are available, alert the priest. If you'd like to join the communion circle but not receive the bread and wine, come forward, cross your arms over your chest, and the priest will offer you a blessing instead. When all have received, the Presider will say "Go in Peace," at which time please return to your seats.

A Prayer for A Spiritual Communion - For those worshipping at home without the sacrament
Faithful God, in the wonder of your wisdom and love, you fed your people in the wilderness with the bread of angels, and you sent Jesus to be the bread of life. Although I am not consuming the gifts of bread and wine, I thank you that I have received the sacrament of Christ's presence. By the power of the Holy Spirit, may I embody your desire and be renewed for your service, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Loving God, you have nourished us at the table of life and hope. Teach us your way of peace, sustain us as we work for justice, and empower us as we proclaim your love to the world, through Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Love in Action: Reaching Our Neighbors

Bring Thanksgiving Joy to Our Neighbors! Once again this year our parish is partnering with two local elementary schools—Arcola and Rock View—to ensure families in our community can celebrate a bountiful Thanksgiving together. More than half the students at both schools qualify for free or reduced-price meals. For many families, the extra expense of a holiday feast is a challenge. Three ways to help!

- Fill a Bag! Grab a shopping bag and shopping list from the Outreach table in the hallway at the back of the sanctuary. Take it along on your next grocery run and fill it up.

  Return your filled bag to church by NEXT Sunday, Nov. 15.
  If a full bag is beyond your budget, feel free to purchase a few items from the list. Place food donations in the baskets in the hallway at the back of the sanctuary.

- Make a monetary donation in any amount. $60 covers the costs for one bag which includes the cost of food and a grocery gift card. Envelopes for donation are on the Outreach table at church, or you can donate online through Realm.

- Donate a $25 Giant or Safeway Gift Card. Drop them in the donation box on the Outreach table!

The Packing Party will be next Sunday, November 15 after the 10:00 service and everyone is encouraged to participate. Questions? Contact Claudia Deane at deanetravel@yahoo.com. Thank you for your generous support!

Volunteer at the Wheaton Food Pantry! Help organize and distribute food the 2nd and 4th Tuesday of every month to 600 local families experiencing food insecurity. Interested in volunteering? Contact Liz Quinn at webethemom@aol.com or 301-775-2545.

Food Justice DMV Assist our immigrant neighbors with essential food and supplies. Please donate infant formula (Similac, please) and diapers (of any size, but especially sizes 5 and 6). Leave them in the hallway across from the Outreach board. They will be delivered at least monthly. Note: There is currently a GREAT need for diapers.

Volunteers needed for The Immigrant Rights Collectives (IRC). A mutual aid movement in both MoCo and PG counties, the IRC does excellent work to support hundreds of remaining family members, mostly mothers and children, impacted by detention of a loved one. IRC volunteers collect and deliver food, call the moms left behind to start the support process, and are setting up a legal fund. Many opportunities to volunteer, Spanish not required for many roles. Interested? Questions? Contact Thea Kayne theakayne@gmail.com

Join your neighbors in giving thanks at this annual service of unity and peace.

Love in Action: Racial & Social Justice

At the 10:00 a.m. Service, Dr. Angelina Arrington, Head of School, The Bishop John T. Walker School for Boys (BWS) offered the homily. An exceptional and dynamic leader, Dr. Arrington works diligently to create a community that fosters curiosity, academic excellence, and joy. She holds a BA in English from Univ. of Southern California, a Masters of Ed. from Pepperdine Univ., and a Doctor of Education in Ed. Policy, Organization and Leadership from the Univ. of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign. BWS is an Episcopal elementary school for boys from historically underserved communities, working to alter their educational and social trajectories and prepare them for leadership and service inside their communities and beyond.

Last Summer Christ Church gave a $20,000 gift from our Endowment Fund as an intentional act of reparations for harms done to the African American community. The gift covers the tuition for one student this year. For more information, visit the BWS website bishopwalkerschool.org

Stewardship 2027

As of November 6, we've received 58 pledges. Thank you to all who have already pledged!!

We are 41% toward our goal of 140 pledges and 56% toward our financial goal of $465,000. Every gift matters and is deeply appreciated.

It is vital to Christ Church 's ability to offer meaningful worship with beautiful music, a continuum of faith and spiritual growth offerings for all ages, education and advocacy opportunities to advance racial and social justice, merciful mutual aid for our immigrant neighbors, and all the many ways we are called to share God's love through our generosity and service.

Your pledges (estimates of financial giving in the coming year) allow us to create a budget that supports the church and our ministry as we follow Jesus' Way of love, peace and justice in and for the world. If you have never pledged before, please consider pledging now, and if you routinely pledge, please prayerfully consider increasing your annual pledge if possible. Mail in your pledge card, put it in the offering plate on Sunday, or pledge online using the QR code printed here.

We are so grateful for your presence & generosity!

We raise to God those who are on our hearts and are in need of prayer
