Those in need of continued prayer: Charlie Briggs, Dorothy Clarke, Sara Cowan, Eddie Daniels, Joan Davis, Yvonne Jackson, Nancy Maxwell, Liz McLeod, and Calvin Smith.

For our country that we seek unity and peace, walk with humility, and serve the common good.

We remember those serving our country: Virginia Blackman, Andrew Coe, Alex Cox, Michael Cullinane, Caleb Daisley, Dallas Sheard, and Ryan Sheard. For all National Guard and Public Health personnel deployed to assist in the National Emergency.

We remember those who have died: Alex Governatori and Jo Crozier. All those worldwide who have died of Covid-19, including more than 252,000 Americans. All who have been killed because of their identity or race, or ravages of fire and flood.

And pray for all who mourn, especially the Crozier family, the Governatori and Reese families.

In thanksgiving

For all whose birthdays are this week, including: Carl Keith (11/12)

And in thanksgiving for continued healing of Ted Thanos, Rick Whiting, Jr., and Doug Leavens.

We pray for all in this country and around the world impacted by the pandemic.

For those who are anxious, depressed or lonely.

For our brothers and sisters at Nyumbani, the Home, the Village and the informal communities of Lea Toto in Nairobi. For Sr. Mary, Proteus and all the staff.

For the parents, children, teachers and administrators at Arcola Elementary.

For those who are ill, and those who are waiting for a diagnosis. For all who are isolated.

For those in prison, in nursing homes and other institutions who are extremely vulnerable to the virus.

For those who have lost their jobs, or whose jobs are at risk. For all who are afraid.

For the most vulnerable among us, our homeless and hungry neighbors.

For those with no access to healthcare, or who are afraid to seek it.

For those who are grieving and cannot come together to mourn.

For all medical personnel: doctors, nurses, lab techs, child life specialists, hospital social workers, nurse practitioners, office support, housekeeping staff, and assistants of all kinds.

For all researchers who continue to work diligently to make vaccines as effective as possible

For all public health officials, law enforcement officers, judges and government leaders that they may be strengthened for service and may lead with integrity, wisdom and humility.

For these petitions, and all that is on our hearts, we pray this day.
