

Celebration of Holy Eucharist
Third Sunday of Easter

Christ Episcopal Church
Kensington, Maryland
May 1, 2022
10:00 AM

A Blessed Sunday & Welcome to All

Whether at home or in-person, we are so glad you have joined us for worship this morning, especially if you are new or visiting!

Please wear your mask when singing or interacting with small children. At all other times, mask wearing is strongly encouraged but not required.

Children of all ages are welcome in the service! There is also a wonderful in-person Children's Chapel for children ages 3-10 downstairs in the Parish Hall during the first half of the 10:00 a.m. service. They will return to the service in time for communion. Parents/guardians are welcome! There are also child friendly materials at the back of the sanctuary. Just ask an usher. Interested in more info on children's ministry? Contact Children's Minister Ann Enkiri sundayschool@ccpk.org

All are welcome to receive communion. Instructions for communion are in the bulletin just after the invitation. ("The gifts of God for the people of God...")

Offerings. We will not pass the offering plate; should you want to leave a contribution, there is an offering plate at the back of the church. You may also give online via the link on our website, or simply scan the QR code below. We are grateful for your support!

All-gender restrooms and water are located at the end of the hallway off the back of the sanctuary.

If you are participating online, please know that you are as much a part of our worship today as those in the church! We hope you participate fully, and use the chat function to greet one another and add prayers.

If do not have the sacrament, a prayer for spiritual communion is printed in the bulletin. In the future if worshipping online, and cannot come to the church to pick up communion during the week, please let us know, we will deliver some to you.

Welcome to all our visitors! Please introduce yourself, fill out a visitor's card found in the pews, or let us know if you are worshipping with us online by emailing Parish Administrator Jen Luna administrator@ccpk.org, or calling us at 301-942-4673. We'd be happy to connect with you, and if you wish, add you to our weekly e-newsletter the Christ Church Connection. If you would like more info about Christ Church, please visit our website at www.ChristChurchKensington.org.

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles Acts 9:1-6, 7-20

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord." The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name." But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."

Psalm 30

Exaltabo te, Domine

read responsively by half verse

- 1 I will exalt you, O Lord, because you have lifted me up * and have not let my enemies triumph over me.
- 2 O Lord my God, I cried out to you, * and you restored me to health.
- 3 You brought me up, O Lord, from the dead; *
you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.
- 4 Sing to the LORD, you servants of God; *
give thanks for the remembrance of the holiness of God.
- 5 For the wrath of God endures but the twinkling of an eye, *
the divine favor for a lifetime.
- 6 Weeping may spend the night, *
but joy comes in the morning.
- 7 While I felt secure, I said,
"I shall never be disturbed. *"
Lord, with your favor, you made me as strong as the mountains."
- 8 Then you hid your face, *
and I was filled with fear.
- 9 I cried to you, O Lord; *
I pleaded with you, saying,
- 10 "What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the Pit? *" will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?
- 11 Hear, O Lord, and have mercy upon me; *
O Lord, be my helper."

12 You have turned my wailing into dancing; *
you have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy.
 13 Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing; *
O Lord my God, I will give you thanks for ever.

A Reading from the Revelation to John Revelation 5:11-14

I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!" Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing,

"To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"

And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshiped.

The Gospel John 21:1-19

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

Sermon

The Rev. Emily Guthrie

The Nicene Creed

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People Form VI

In peace, we pray to you, Lord God.

Silence

For all people in their daily life and work;
For our families, friends, and neighbors, and for those who are alone.

For this community, the nation, and the world;
For all who work for justice, freedom, and peace.

For the just and proper use of your creation;
For the victims of hunger, fear, injustice, and oppression.

For all who are in danger, sorrow, or any kind of trouble;
For those who minister to the sick, the friendless, and the needy.

For the peace and unity of the Church of God;
For all who proclaim the Gospel, and all who seek the Truth.

For Michael our Presiding Bishop, Mariann our Bishop, and for all bishops and other ministers, both lay and ordained;
For all who serve God in the church.

For the special needs and concerns of this congregation. We pray for an end to the war in Ukraine and everywhere there is violent conflict. We pray for all refugees. We pray for the sick of our parish: Ardith Cullinane, Bruce Lee, Jon Martineau, Ramzi Nemo, Mary Padgett, Betsy Robbins, Marion Rutsch, Kitty Shuler, Doug Slotten, Calvin Smith, Tom Willis, Rosemarie Oster, and all caregivers.

You are invited to add your intercessions, silently, aloud, or in the chat.

Hear us, Lord;
For your mercy is great.

We thank you, Lord, for all the blessings of this life, remembering especially those who celebrate birthdays this week, including Karen Bruce, Paul Eckert, Suzanne Shaw, Sean Woodward, Melissa Kelly, and Linda Smith.

You are invited to add your prayers of thanksgiving, silently, aloud or in the chat.

We will exalt you, O God;
And praise your Name for ever and ever.

We pray for all who have died. We remember all those worldwide who have died of Covid-19, including the more than 991,000 Americans, and all whom we now name, that they may have a place in your eternal kingdom.

You are invited to add your own prayers for the departed, silently, aloud, or in the chat.

Lord, let your loving-kindness be upon them
Who put their trust in you.

We pray to you also for the forgiveness of our sins.

A moment of silence

Have mercy upon us, most merciful God; in your compassion forgive us our sins, known and unknown, things done and left undone; and so uphold us by your Spirit that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Presider offers Absolution.

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Peace

Presider The Peace of the Lord be always with you.

Offertory Antiphon Abide with us

Kevin Hildebrand

text: "Abide with us, Lord, for it is toward evening and the day is far spent. Abide with us and with Your whole Church. Abide with us at the end of the day, at the end of our life, at the end of the world. Abide with us with Your grace and goodness, with Your holy Word and Sacrament, with your strength and blessing. Abide with us when the night of affliction and temptation comes upon us, the night of fear and despair, the night when death draws near. Abide with us and with all the faithful, through time and eternity. Amen."

Presider The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

All thanks and praise are yours at all times and in all places, our true and loving God; through Jesus Christ, your eternal Word, the Wisdom from on high by whom you created all things. You laid the foundations of the world and enclosed the sea; You brought forth all creatures of the earth and gave breath to humankind.

Wondrous are you, Holy One of Blessing, all you create is a sign of hope for our journey; And so as the morning stars sing your praises we join the heavenly beings and all creation as we shout with joy:

The Sanctus S-125 Proulx

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
 Blest is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Glory and honor are yours, Creator of all, your Word has never been silent; you call a people to yourself, as a light to the nations, you delivered them from bondage and led them to a land of promise.

Of your grace, you have Jesus to be human, to share our life, to proclaim the coming of your reign and give himself for us, a fragrant offering. Through Jesus Christ our Redeemer, you have freed us from sin, brought us into your life, reconciled us to you, and restored us to the glory you intend for us.

We thank you that on the night before he died for us Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, gave to his friends and said: "Take, eat, this is my Body, broken for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends and said: "Drink this, all of you: this cup is the New Covenant in my Blood, poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

And so remembering all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection and ascension, longing for Christ's coming in glory, and presenting to you these gifts your earth has formed and human hands have made, we acclaim you, O Christ:

Dying, you destroyed our death.

Rising, you restored our life.

Christ Jesus, come in glory!

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and wine that they may be to us the Body and Blood of your Christ.

Grant that we, burning with your Spirit's power, may be a people of hope, justice, and love.

Giver of Life, draw us together in the Body of Christ, and in the fullness of time gather us with all your people into the joy of our true eternal home. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, we worship you our God and Creator in voices of unending praise.

Blessed are you now and for ever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Invitation and Communion of the People

Presider The holy gifts of God for the holy people of God.

All are welcome to receive communion at Christ Church. We will distribute at the bottom of the chancel steps. Gluten-free wafers are available, simply tell your server. If you would like to participate in the communion but not receive the sacrament, come forward and cross your arms over your chest, and we will offer a blessing instead.

If you do not have the sacrament at home, here is a prayer for a spiritual communion. A spiritual communion is a personal devotional that anyone can pray at any time to express their desire to receive Holy Communion at that moment, but in which circumstances impede them from physically doing so.

I am in union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated. I love you above all things, and long for you in my soul. Since I cannot receive you in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Estate Planning Event on May 22: The Planned Giving and Endowment Committee of Christ Church invites you to a presentation regarding estate planning and Christ Church on May 22, 2022, directly after the 10:00 service. David Lucas, an estate planning attorney will present an overview of what you should consider when contemplating your estate plan, followed by a question and answer session. Just information – no solicitation. Refreshments will be served, and bring a note pad to jot down information. Questions? Contact Sarah Leung, rsmailtemp-plantsfan@yahoo.com.

CC Kids Connection Parents of children 10 and under, if you're not already signed up for the CC Kids Connection, please email Ann Enkiri sundayschool@ccpk.org. It's the best way to get current info on what's happening to support children and parents. For example, come join other parents for coffee and conversation at 9:30am while your child learns about the Eucharist! Or just come hang out even if your child isn't with you that Sunday!

Opportunities for Spiritual Growth and Reflection

Eastertide Conversations about Faith: Dialogue, Exploration, & Connection
3 Monday Evenings in May, 7:00-8:30pm on Zoom, begins tomorrow, May 2!

Join us for one or all three of the small group conversations about our journey of faith and spiritual development. We will explore questions such as "How do you think Jesus' followers felt when they met him after he died and rose again?", and "If Jesus were here right now, what would you say to him?" Come explore and connect. Questions? Email Andrea McGray at grow@ccpk.org.

Sunday 4:00 p.m. Bible Study. Join us as we delve into the Minor Prophets, as they are known in the Hebrew scriptures. But their exhortations are minor by no means. These prophets most likely wrote after the fall of Jewish monarchy and they offer both harsh judgements of imperial corruption and comforting words of redemption. They have an interesting relevance for where we often find ourselves today! Drop in or come every week. In person in the library at church and on Zoom. If you have questions, contact Lee Puricelli at leepuricelli@yahoo.com.

Lectio Divina: Join us on Zoom Tuesday evenings from 5:30pm-6:30pm for the contemplative practice of Lectio Divina, a wonderful combo of reflection on scripture, your life, and prayer. If you have questions, please contact Lissa Ramsepaul, lissacr@comcast.net or just zoom in!

Monthly Mondays Racial & Social Justice Book Discussion – this month on Tuesday! Join us on May 10 (change of date from May 9) for our final conversation about The Church Cracked Open by Stephanie Spellers. We will meet on Zoom at 7:00 p.m., and for this final session the Racial & Social Justice committee will share what we've learned about the history of our Church and Race and seek your input and guidance as we prepare to take this information to the congregation. Questions? Contact Cynthia Mitchell at justice@ccpk.org.

Opportunities to Help the Church Community

We need YOU! In order to continue providing livestreaming to our many parishioners and visitors worshipping with us on Sunday mornings, we need a few more Tech Ministers! Great training provided. You don't have to be a techie or software genius, just willing to serve once a month or so. Teens and up. (An amazing transferable skill...just saying) Interested? Or curious? Contact Tom Tatem, tctatem@gmail.com, or Hope Christensen, hope@ccpk.org.

And...Spread the word. Because the Holy Spirit is amazing but needs a body to use a mouse, we are also looking for someone to be a paid back-up Tech Minister. Know someone who might be interested? Ask them to contact Tom, Hope or Emily for further details! (For this position it would be helpful to have a bit of experience with A/V.)

Be a Hospitality Angel. Bring joy to adults and children alike by helping to set up our post 10 am service Popsicles and Lemonade on the Lawn. Really easy. Big payoff. Contact Kate Duchelle, Vestry Member for Parish Life, kduchelle@gmail.com

Those in our community in need of healing prayers:

Ardith Cullinane, Bruce Lee, Jon Martineau, Ramzi Nemo, Mary Padgett, Betsy Robbins, Marion Rutsch, Kitty Shuler, Doug Slotten, Calvin Smith, Tom Willis, Rosemarie Oster, and all caregivers.

Those in need of continued prayer: Florence Crozier, Amy Saylor, Dorothy Clarke, Sara Cowan, Eddie Daniels, Joan Davis, Yvonne Jackson, Carl Keith, and Liz McLeod.

For the Nation: For the work of dismantling racism and building a just society. For an end to gun violence.

For the unemployed and underemployed. For the most vulnerable among us, our homeless and hungry neighbors, refugees and prisoners. For those with no access to healthcare, or who are afraid to seek it.
For those who are anxious, depressed or lonely.

For all public health officials, law enforcement officers, judges, government leaders and all in positions of authority that they may be strengthened for service and may lead with integrity, wisdom and humility.

We pray for our neighbors around the world:

- For peace in Ukraine and the region.
- For all peoples torn apart by violence and war.
- Our brothers and sisters at Nyumbani, the Home, the Village and the informal communities of Lea Toto in Nairobi.

We remember those serving our country: Virginia Blackman, Andrew Coe, Alex Cox, Michael Cullinane, Caleb Daisley, David Hanna, Alex Miller.

We remember those who have died: all those worldwide who have died of Covid-19, including the more than 991,000 Americans.

We give thanks: for all in our parish who celebrate their birthdays this week, including Karen Bruce (5/1), Paul Eckert (5/1), Suzanne Shaw (5/4), Sean Woodward (5/6), Melissa Kelly (5/6), and Linda Smith (5/7).

For these petitions, and all that is on our hearts, we pray this day.
