

FAITH & POLITICS: A CONVERSATION

How does your faith or worldview shape your political views?

Calling individuals from different backgrounds and political affiliations: You are invited to share your experiences, stories, hopes and concerns — not debate — through structured dialogue sessions to build better understanding.

Monday, November 18th, 5:30-7:30 p.m.

4th Floor, Shopland Hall, Scranton Cultural Center,
N. Washington Avenue, Downtown Scranton

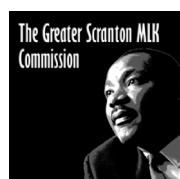

Light Refreshments Will Be Served

Talking about politics & religion is often a taboo — let's break that rule! Come ready to listen, reflect & learn with your neighbors in Northeastern PA!

Anxious about conversation around the Thanksgiving table?! Come to an interactive discussion that will help you learn skills to dialogue across differences.

RSVP required: 570.941.4419 or community@scranton.edu

scranton.edu/dialogues

THE UNIVERSITY OF
SCRANTON
A JESUIT UNIVERSITY

LACKAWANNA COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA
Commissioners
Patrick M. O'Malley • Jerry Notarianni • Laureen A. Cummings

arts engage

PennState
Scranton

Marywood
UNIVERSITY

Scranton Area Ministerium
Working together to build community.

Sponsors: Greater Scranton MLK Commission, Lackawanna County Department of Arts & Culture, Marywood University, Penn State Scranton, Scranton Area Ministerium, & The University of Scranton.