Ministerial Boundary Training (on demand virtually)

The Penn Northeast Conference of the United Church of Christ, in partnership with the Lehigh Presbytery, the Pennsylvania Southeast Conference, the Moravian Church Northern Province, and the Northeast Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, is pleased to offer this virtual Ministerial Boundary Training. Once registered the individual participants can work at their own pace to complete the five modules. Here are specifics about the course content

Learn from denominational experts and the team at Convergence about the need for and management of excellent boundaries. Each unit will contain specific learning objectives, reflections based on theological foundations, case studies, best practices and video interactions.

- Boundaries in Pastoral Relationships with Adults
- Boundaries in Pastoral Relationships with Children & Youth
- Boundaries with Finances and Church Business
- Boundaries with Social Media
- Boundaries for Self-Care

Participants will write and submit 250 word reflections after each unit and a 600-1000 word reflection at the conclusion of the course.

Upon review by the Convergence staff participants will receive a certificate in Boundary Training for Clergy as well as a packet containing their reflections that can be turned in to their conference or denominational offices to verify their completion of the course.

Please register through the Penn Northeast Conference office by completing and emailing this registration form with your registration fee of $75.00. You can email the form to pattyr@pnec.org and please send your check made payable to PNEC to Penn Northeast Conference, 431 Delaware Ave., Palmerton, PA 18071.

Registration opens: January 21 and closes February 11 - payment must also be received.

Training sessions can begin as early as February 22, 2021
