

Central Moravian Church Presents
Travelers Together 2021: Part 2

Our Racial Awakening and Healing Journey Continues: Deepening Our Awareness of Racism and White Privilege

Riddick
Weber

Sue Koenig

Rayah Levy

Sharon
Gavin-Levy

Stephen
Ray

Janinne
Santoro

Each week, this Zoom series will offer brief content presentations and then time to talk in small groups with trusted travelers about our growing awareness of racism and our desire to help heal the wounds it causes. Participants will be in the same small groups throughout the series and participation in the first session is required to set the stage for future discussions.

Go to <https://forms.gle/QMgKzBH1TeHfZnxz8> to register for this series and to receive your Zoom invitation.

The focus of our weekly discussions and the content presenters are:

Sept. 19, 2021

Connecting with Others

Led by Travelers Together Team Members

Sept. 24, 2021

Becoming Aware - My Own Beginnings

Led by The Rev. Dr. Riddick Weber, Associate Professor of Pastoral Ministry,
Moravian Theological Seminary

Oct. 3, 2021

Seeing Injustices

Led by The Rev. Sue Koenig, Pastor of First Moravian Church, Easton, PA and Director for Racial Justice and Healing, Moravian Church, Northern Province

Oct. 10, 2021

Where I Belong

Led by Ms. Rayah Levy, CEO Esther Lee
African American Heritage Center and
Dr. Sharon Gavin-Levy, Professor Emerita of English at Northampton Community College and Community leader and Elder at Greater Shiloh Church

Oct. 17, 2021

Money and Power

Led by Judy and Dick Williams, Travelers Together Team Members
Using presentation by the Rev. Dr. Stephen Ray,
President of Chicago Theological Seminary

Oct. 24, 2021

Where Are We Now? Creating Action Plans

Led by Ms. Rayah Levy and

Ms. Janine Santoro, M.Div. Drew University and Ruling Elder for Worship and the Creative Arts at First Presbyterian Church of Allentown, PA