

Evangelical and Reformed Historical Society
Annual Meeting
Saturday, September
21, 2019

Join with us in celebrating the Bicentennial of the birth of Philip Schaff (1819-1893), church historian, theologian, biblical scholar, author, ecumenist, professor.

Dr. Lee Barrett, Professor of Theology at Lancaster Theological Seminary will present a sketch of the life of Philip Schaff which will set a context for this bicentennial celebration.

Keynote speaker Elizabeth A. Clark, John Carlisle Kilgo Professor Emeritus of Religion at Duke University, presentation, "Transatlantic Mentoring: Philip Schaff and Arthur Cushman McGiffert".

❖ Dr. Clark is the author of numerous articles and books on early Christian history, women and religion.

Hafer Center, second floor of Schaff Library, Lancaster Theological Seminary, Lancaster, PA

Business meeting 1:00-1:30 pm.

Break for refreshments 1:30-2:00

Presentations 2:00-3:30:

Philip Schaff Biography by Dr. Lee Barrett

Keynote Address by Dr. Elizabeth Clark

