A Word from Alan — Journal entry by Candy Miller — May 31, 2019 — Caring Bridge

I have been reading all of your journal entries. I have literally been brought to tears and overwhelmed by your words of encouragement and prayers. I cannot even begin to describe what they mean to me. Compared to how I was in late 2017 and into 2018, Candy said I have made a lot of progress. I remember all of you, the doctors tell me that the part of my brain that remembers people has not been affected. However I still cannot remember what I did for the last 20 years. I know I was the PNEC Conference Minister but I cannot remember what I did during that time. I love all of you very much, thank you for taking your time to express your love for me. God bless each and every one of you.
