

Saturday, May 5, 2018

9 am—3 pm

$35.00

(lunch included)
($30. each, for multiple individuals from the same church.)

PROGRESSIVE CHRISTIAN WORSHIP MUSIC WORKSHOP

Featuring Rev. Bryan Sirchio

UCC minister, singer/songwriter, author, and Convergence Music Project CEO Bryan Sirchio will lead a fun, heart-warming and mind-expanding day. Drawing from his critically acclaimed book, The 6 Marks of Progressive Christian Worship Music, we'll sing, talk, and reflect on why worship music is so important and why the language, theology, and message of the songs we sing in worship have unique power to form us spiritually and inspire us to work toward the realization of God's Dream of justice and Shalom for the world. We'll also learn about a new source of progressive worship music called The Convergence Music Project. Learn more about Bryan and his music at www.sirchio.com.

To register go to:
<https://psecsirchio.eventbrite.com>
Registration will close May 2nd.

New Goshenhoppen Church

1070 Church Rd.
East Greenville, PA
215-679-2041

For pastors and all designers of liturgy

For all Church
Music directors,
and all church
organists and pianists

For all members of "Praise and Worship" bands

For all those who want their church music to be as powerful as it can be!

A Progressive Christian Worship Music Workshop

- Do you want your worship music to be fresh, relevant, heart-moving, AND theologically substantive?
- Are you looking for song texts that reflect a sensitivity to inclusive language and theology that embraces the importance of personal spirituality as well as the biblical call to practice extravagant welcome, do justice, show compassion for the poor, and honor the earth and its ecosystems?
- Are you looking for some good new worship music that won't give your pastor theological hives?
- Would you like an easy and meaningful way to explain to your musicians and congregation why mainline or more progressive clergy are often uncomfortable with the theology and language of "Praise and Worship" music?

Then this workshop is for you!

Drawing from his book, The 6 Marks of Progressive Christian Worship Music, Progressive Christian Singer/Songwriter and CEO of The Convergence Music Project Rev. Bryan Sirchio will lead a workshop on Progressive Christian Worship Music and all the issues connected to finding, using, and introducing new music with inclusive language and progressive theology to congregations. This workshop is for pastors, choir directors, choir members, church organists and pianists, worship band musicians, anyone who designs or creates liturgies, and all lay person interested in exploring the role of music in worship. We will sing together, discuss the challenges and opportunities of bringing new music and liturgical art forms into our local churches and the role that music plays in spiritual formation and worship that is personally transforming and world-changing.

Registration Notes:

Day of walk-ins are welcome, but lunch will not be included without pre-registering.