THE COMPASS HEALING CIRCLE (meets monthly) - Comprised of veterans, family members of vets, and committed members of the larger community, COMPASS meets monthly. The Circle is carefully established as safe space, "holy ground" where:

*the stories of veterans and family members are welcomed and heard in the process of deep listening; truths and wisdom of veterans experience are received and honored.

*truths and wisdom of veterans experience are received and honored:

*the soul wounds of war and military service are tended to:

*The things needed for restoration and healing are named; and *the isolating breach between those returning from service and the wider community is being repaired.

*no particular religious beliefs necessary to join us.

*no age limit. You did not need to serve during war or police actions to join.

This group has been in practice for six years and has national recognition. They recently moved from Perkasio to Coopersburg. Saint John's is honored to help with this important healing process. Please contact Pastor Teresa Martin at 717-654-4044 or RevTeresaMartin@outlook.com for more information. Preregistration is required to protect the integrity of the group. St. John's UCC, 538 E. Thomas St., Coopersburg.
