SAINT ANDREW'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
SHIPPENSBURG, PENNSYLVANIA

June 15, 2025
TRINITY SUNDAY

Welcome to St. Andrew's Episcopal Church

We are called by faith to co-create with God and our community the resources and connections needed to rise above adversity.

Dear Friends,

We welcome you today, whether you have been here many times, or this is your first time worshiping with us. We hope that each one of you feels the draw of God, pulling you deeper into the mystery and communion with Christ, which we experience through our shared worship, prayer, song, silence, and community.

We are worshiping in the season after Pentecost which is often described as the "long green growing season", for it is one of the longest liturgical seasons of the church year (beginning with the Feast Day of Pentecost, often at the end of May or early June and extending through The Feast Day of Christ the King, immediately before Advent in early December).

We refer to this church season as the "green growing season" for we are prompted to focus on our "growth in Christ" as the scripture lessons we read during this time relate the stories of the ministry and life of Jesus and the abiding culture of loving one another, in the midst of challenges and differences in the early church.

It is often said, "You can't be a Christian by yourself." The reason for that is that being a Christian is all about being in relationship with each other. We deeply believe in our call to love God and to love our neighbor, with the understanding that we can't do one without the other. This sense of community and commonality of the Holy Eucharist is then lived out in our parish activities and in our own particular lives. Each week, when we leave the worship, we take a part of God with us that had not yet been known to us as we entered the church and experience a deeper sense of belonging to a community. That's a beautiful gift offered to us by God and by each other. Let us give thanks and rejoice for this blessing.

In Christ's love, Mother Barbara, Mother Ginger, and Deacon Brian

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF PROVERBS Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Does not wisdom call, and does not understanding raise her voice? On the heights, beside the way, at the crossroads she takes her stand; beside the gates in front of the town, at the entrance of the portals she cries out: "To you, O people, I call, and my cry is to all that live. The Lord created me at the beginning of his work, the first of his acts of long ago. Ages ago I was set up, at the first, before the beginning of the earth. When there were no depths I was brought forth, when there were no springs abounding with water. Before the mountains had been shaped, before the hills, I was brought forth--when he had not yet made earth and fields, or the world's first bits of soil. When he established the heavens, I was there, when he drew a circle on the face of the deep, when he made firm the skies above, when he established the fountains of the deep, when he assigned to the sea its limit, so that the waters might not transgress his command, when he marked out the foundations of the earth, then I was beside him, like a master worker; and I was daily his delight, rejoicing before him always, rejoicing in his inhabited world and delighting in the human race."

PSALM 8 (Prayed responsively by whole verse.) BCP 592

1 O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

2 Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.

3 You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger.

4 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, *
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,

5 What is man that you should be mindful of him? *
the son of man that you should seek him out?

6 You have made him but little lower than the angels; *
you adorn him with glory and honor;

7 You give him mastery over the works of your hands; *
you put all things under his feet:

8 All sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,

9 The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

10 O LORD our Governor, *
how exalted is your Name in all the world!

A READING FROM THE BOOK OF ROMANS Romans 5:1-5

Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

GRADUAL HYMN

THE HOLY GOSPEL John 16:12-15

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to the disciples, "I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason, I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you."

NICENE CREED BCP 358

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen. We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father. Through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven: by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end. We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son. With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

THE PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

We have been baptized into a holy mystery. As Christians, let us pray to God, saying, "Unity in Trinity, bend your ear. Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer."

Glory to you, Lord God. Immerse us in the life of the Holy Trinity. Send us out to fulfill the ministries to which we have been called with faith and boldness. We pray for Sean, our Presiding Bishop; Audrey and Kevin, our Bishops; for our Clergy, Staff, Wardens, Vestry, and Lay Leaders. We pray for the Community Garden, Grace Place, and the ministries of St. Andrew's. We also pray for the people of our sibling parishes: Memorial Prince of Peace, Gettysburg and St. Gabriel's, Douglassville.
Silence.

Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.
Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Glory to you, Lord God. Surround us with your love that brings order to chaos and community to individualism. Create in us a love for peace that makes whole what now is broken. We pray for Donald, our President; Josh, our Governor; the mayors of our cities and towns; and all elected and appointed officials in government. We pray for God's peace and protection to be upon those who are in active duty in our military: Clayton Gilbert, Joshua Watkins, Ryan Bane, Anna Murphy, Brooke Callaway, Andrew Harkins, Kyle Hubert, and Steve.
Silence.
Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.
Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Glory to you, Lord God. You established the heavens and marked out the foundations of the earth. Comfort those who suffer because of natural disasters. Empower us to enter into partnership with you for the flourishing of all creation with gratitude and joy.
Silence.
Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.
Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Glory to you, Lord God. By endurance you bring forth character in your people. This weekend we give thanks for new graduates, for teachers, and all educators. We give thanks for fathers and all father figures, for their courage and care.
Silence.
Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.
Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Glory to you, Lord God. Bestow the grace of hope and healing upon those who are ill in mind, body, or spirit and grant those who give them care continuing strength and perseverance. We pray especially for: Judy, Sherri, Hilary Joan, Kati, Ginny and Gary, Brett and Dana, Jake, Grace, Leah, Joel, Stephen, Will, Carenda, Alan, Frank, Mary, Michelle, Margo, Kathy, Bob, Mike, Elaine, Bill, The Becker Family, Heidi and Belinda, Bobby Coons, Owen, Lisa, Angelika Clark, Blaine, Carolyn, Jeff, Lori Horst and family, George, Chris, Terry, Billy Jones, Matt Ashberry, Kim, Joanne Bonner, Debbie Garrett, Mother Barbara, Andrew, Phillip, Bev, Shannon, Marty, Marian and Barbara, Allen and Barbara, Jim and Kathy, the Paszkowski family, Anne, Carol, Ken and Melisa, Effie, LuAnn, Kathy, Roseann, Kathleen, Wanda, and Brian.

Silence.
Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.
Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Glory to you, O Trinity. We pray for all who are dying, for those who have died, and for all who mourn. Bring us at last to see you in your one and eternal glory.
Silence.
Unity in Trinity, bend your ear.
Trinity in Unity, hear our prayer.

Almighty God, you have revealed to the Church your eternal Being of glorious majesty and perfect love as one God in Trinity of Persons: Give us grace to continue steadfast in the confession of this faith, and constant in our worship of you, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit; for you live and reign, one God, now and forever.
Amen.

CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS BCP 360

(Kneeling)

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

People Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; That we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

PRESENTATION OF THE OFFERINGS #380 vs.3

We have replaced the Shaped by Faith Prayer with the following Prayer of Commission, for we believe we are all a part of the Great Commission, that sending forth of Jesus' disciples into the world to carry forth God's dream of justice and righteousness for all. We have placed this prayer in this location in the worship service for we have just presented God with our gifts (monetary as well as the offering of our hearts and souls) and now we pledge to use our gifts and those of our parish to be workers in God's beloved community.

PRAYER OF COMMISSION

"I have told you all this so that you may have peace in me. Here on earth, you will have many trials and sorrows. But take heart, because I have overcome the world." (John 16:33 NLT)

Loving and generous God, we are so blessed by the opportunity to be workers in your beloved community. We trust that your promises will not fail; your dream of justice and plenty for all will be realized. What a wondrous, life-affirming gift, that you have invited us into the work of bringing your dream to fruition in our community.

We are here with open hands and hearts, and we ask you to use us. Show us where we belong in your dream; weave each of us into this holy tapestry according to our ability to serve you and our neighbor. You have given each of us different gifts; let us use our gifts to tend the ones who need your love, and to lift each other as we walk this path of faith and hope together.

No matter what happens in the weary world around us, let us proclaim your love as a beacon that will not be diminished. Empower us to nurture an oasis of welcome and encouragement, support and security, peace and hope, for all who come seeking light in a hurting world. We pray for this ministry, our neighbors, and your continued blessing as you go in front of us to make a way. Be in our midst as we feed the hungry, share a conversation with the lonely, encourage the homeless who are working so hard to re-establish their lives. Bless the counselors at Grace Place who are providing stability and healing to people whose lives are upended and chaotic. Bless each ministry that is now reaching out to touch lives at the shelter, and those who give their time to make them successful. Send your Holy Spirit to inspire us to make new connections in the community, so this mission may reach all who are in need. We know there is much to be done, one kindness at a time, and we know your love never fails. We are grounded in your truth.

All that we have belongs to you, oh Lord. May we joyfully walk together as one family, bearing each other's burdens and rejoicing in your peace. Thanks be to God, who gives us victory through our Lord Jesus Christ! Amen.

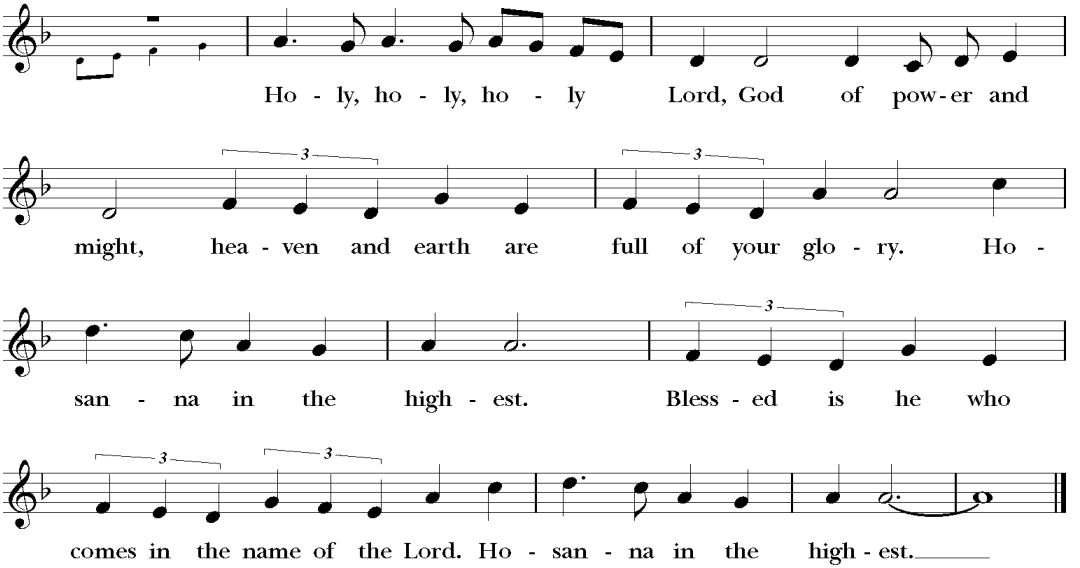

THE HOLY EUCHARIST

(Standing)
GREAT THANKSGIVING (Eucharistic Prayer A)

Celebrant	The Lord be with you.
People	And also with you.
Celebrant	Lift up your hearts.
People	We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant	Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People	It is right to give God thanks and praise.

The Celebrant proceeds
It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. For with your co-eternal Son and Holy Spirit, you are one God, one Lord, in Trinity of Persons and in Unity of Being;
and we celebrate the one and equal glory of you, O Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Therefore, we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS #S129 1982 Hymnal

The Celebrant continues.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love, you made us for yourself, and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world. (Sanctus bells will be rung here.)

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." (Sanctus bells will be rung here.)

After supper, he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." (Sanctus bells will be rung here.)

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

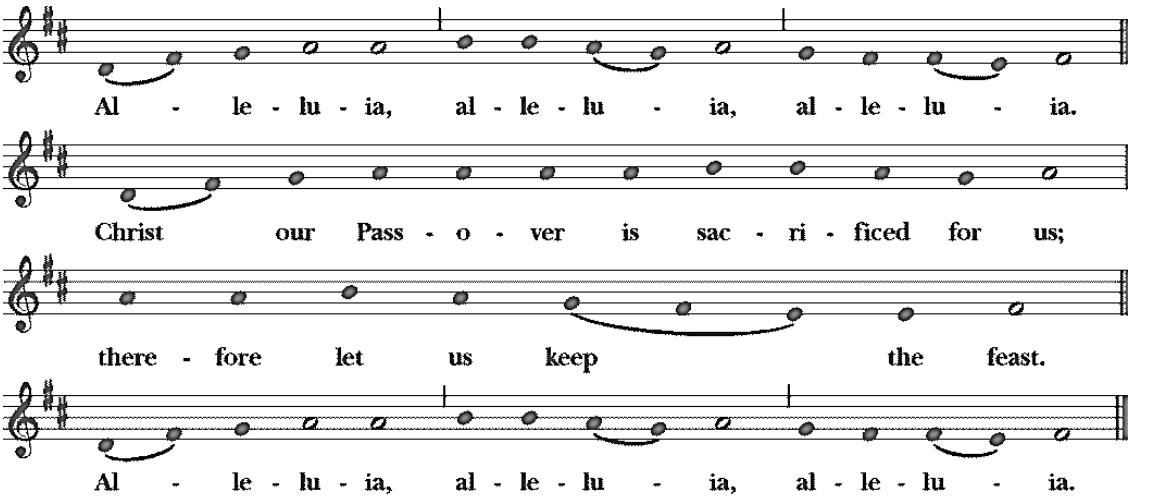

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

(Silence is kept)

Celebrant Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.
People Therefore, let us keep the feast. Alleluia

FRACTION ANTHEM #S154 1982 Hymnal

Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.
Take them in remembrance that Christ died for you, and feed on him in your hearts by faith, with thanksgiving.

All, regardless of their denomination, are welcome to receive Communion. Anyone who desires a blessing instead, please come forward, kneel, and cross your arms across your chest.

COMMUNION MUSIC

(Standing or kneeling)
PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Let us pray.

Dearest Jesus, we believe that you are truly present in the Holy Sacrament, and, since we all cannot receive communion in the consecrated bread and wine, we pray you to come into our hearts. We unite ourselves with you and embrace you with our hearts, souls, and minds. Let nothing separate us from you; let us serve you in this life until, by your grace, we come to your glorious kingdom and unending peace. Amen.

(Standing or sitting)
POST COMMUNION PRAYER BCP 365

Celebrant Let us pray.
Celebrant and People

Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE BLESSING

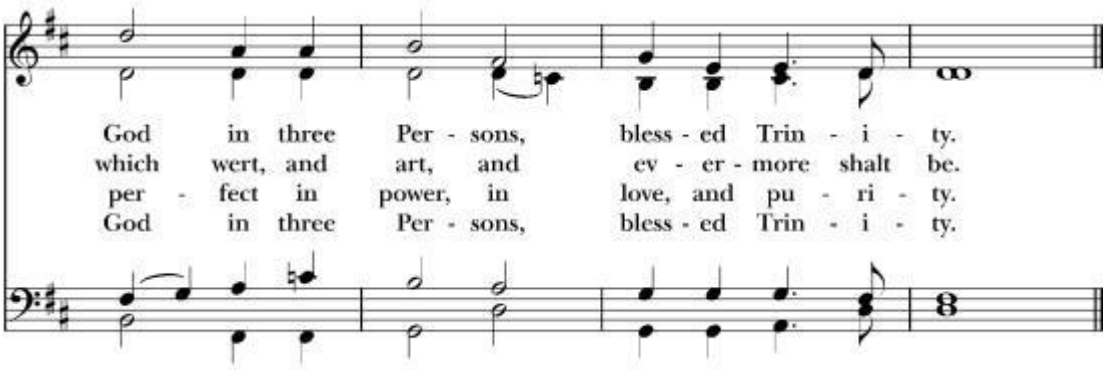

Celebrant

The peace of God, which passes all understanding; keep your heart and minds in the knowledge and love of God and of God's Son, Jesus Christ our Lord; and the blessing of God Almighty, Father Son and Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are grateful you are here this morning with us. Please come to the Parish Life Center for Coffee Hour following the 10 a.m. service.

We welcome Kelsey Heckmen as our preacher this morning. Kelsey has been taking courses through our Diocesan Stevenson School for Ministry, and one of them has been on preaching. So, we are thrilled he will open up the doctrine of the Trinity for us in his beautiful imagery and evocative questions.

Please join us on Friday evening, June 27th at 7:30 p.m. for an amazing concert of two of our favorite young musicians: Kevin Gorman (pianist) and Timothy McClure (violinist). This will be a beautiful treat for our souls.

This Sunday we collect for SPO, which is our local food pantry. They currently service 400 families in our neighborhood with food designed to supplement what they can purchase for themselves. The need continues to increase, so if you can make a generous contribution to support their vibrant ministry, we would be most grateful. Each week, as part of our support of SPO, we create a "Let's Get Cooking with SPO" video, showing people how to use the materials they receive at SPO that week. Check us out!

Prayer List Renewal in July

The Prayer Ministry Team would like to update the list of people we pray for each Sunday in the bulletin. Intentional praying, name by name, is a beautiful act of community and an opening to God's wondrous work of healing in our lives.

As we update the list of names included in "Prayers of the People", please know that someone who wants or needs to stay on the current list may do so simply by asking. It is our desire that no one will be overlooked as we make this transition.

Please take a moment: Look at the current list in the Sunday "Prayers of the People" and place the name(s) of anyone you would like us all to continue to pray for in a basket or by contacting Mother Barbara (rector@standrewsship.org). This may be yourself or others. Please include the name of the person making the request, so you too may be held in our hearts. You may also place new names on the list, of course. This is an open invitation day by day, week by week.

Baskets with index cards will begin to appear in the sanctuary, the church entry, the sacristy and the PLC. Simply write the name(s) on the card and place them in the envelope marked "July". These names will be passed on to Mother Barbara each Sunday in strict confidentiality. Any information you choose to include will be held in private; only the name will appear in the bulletin. The Prayer Team will pray for these requests as well.

In time, you may also use a link on the St. Andrew's website.

Let us know if you have a suggestion or a concern. We would be dismayed to miss someone in need or to proceed in a way that is anything but opening a way for the grace of God.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
The Prayer Ministry Team
