One in ten High school students have been purposefully hit, slapped or physically hurt by a boyfriend or girlfriend; reported by loveitrespect.org.

A shocking fact that doesn't even include the students that are verbally, mentally or sexually abused by a boyfriend or girlfriend and I would like to change that.

My name is Brooke and I am working on my Girl Scout Gold Award-Teen Dating Violence Awareness. For $20 Please join me in educating our youth ages 13-18 on teen dating violence, with a workshop at Mt. Carmel UMC at 5100 S Old Peachtree Rd, Norcross, GA, 30092 on Saturday, November 5, 2016 from 2 pm to 5 pm.

During the workshop teens and adults will get information from a teen activist, on what is an abusive and violent dating relationship and what resources for getting out of an abusive relationship are available unto them. In addition, we will learn some self defense moves to protect ourselves.
