LUTHERAN CHURCH EXTENSION FUND

FINANCIAL SOLUTIONS. TOGETHER IN FAITH.

The Joy of Investing Isn't Just What You Earn - It's What You Help Build.

When you invest with Lutheran Church Extension Fund (LCEF), your money does more than grow. It becomes a blessing to others.

Your investment helps congregations build and renovate churches, expand schools, support ministry opportunities, and share the Gospel with communities across the country. While earning a competitive return, you are also investing in lives changed through Christ.

Why Invest with LCEF?

- Faith-Focused – Your dollars support Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod ministries.
- Competitive Returns – A variety of investment options designed to meet your financial goals.
- Trusted Stewardship – Serving LCMS congregations and individuals for generations.
- Kingdom Impact – Every investment helps provide loans and resources that strengthen ministries and communities. LCEF only supports all entities of the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod.

Imagine knowing that your savings are helping a pastor purchase a home, providing a growing congregation with the funds to expand its ministry, enabling a smaller church to make much-needed repairs, supporting a Lutheran school as it educates and shares the Gospel of Jesus daily with the next generation, or making it possible for a ministry to reach even more people with the Gospel; all while working toward your own financial future.

That's the Joy of Investing with LCEF!
