

The monthly Confessions study with Rev. Troy Neujahr at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, 18000 Van Aken Blvd., Shaker Heights, Ohio begins at 1:30 PM on Thursday, October 7, 2021.

Sharpen your theological mind as the group continues through The Large Catechism, opening up the 8th Commandment. This amazing book was born out of Martin Luther's own sermons and shows an eminently pastoral heart for instructing clergy, families, and new believers alike. It is as indispensable as it is beneficial.

As always, the study is a no-pressure, fraternal study with plenty of opportunity for dialogue. Read it in your favorite translation beforehand, or just come and read it as it's discussed!

IN ADDITION: Those pastors who wish to privately confess their sins and burdens and receive absolution may come at 1:00 PM. The time-honored practice of individual confession and absolution has offered me and other pastors great comfort and relief over the years, and a few pastors have requested the practice be offered before our study. If you'd like to hear the words of God Himself proclaiming your forgiveness, please come at 1:00 PM prepared to hear a brother's confession and to give your own. A reminder, too, that all confessions are genuinely private and held under the sacred seal of the confessional, never to be divulged.
