Clothing Co-op Needs

The Clothing Co-op accepts gently used and new (with the tag) items of clothing, housewares, small kitchen appliances, dishes, knick-knacks, furniture, and other items. We strive to meet the needs of our students and their families during their time at CTSFW at no cost to them. When donating clothing, keep this rule of thumb in mind: If it is something you would want to see on your pastor or his family, bring it to us. We are unable to accept TV's, computer towers, laptops, or tablets.

As a gift to our students who welcome a new baby, the Clothing Co-op gifts a layette box with new items, size Newborn to 4T. Onesies, socks, bottles, baby books, rattles, toys, stuffed animals, snow suits, holiday outfits, hair bows, shorts, shirts, pants, dresses, etc. In addition, each baby receives a handmade quilt and at times hand crocheted blankets, sweaters, hats, booties, or car seat covers.
