Levy Accepts Call as Education Executive/Superintendent of Ohio Lutheran Schools

Nicole Levy has accepted the call to serve as Education Executive/Superintendent of Ohio Lutheran Schools from the Ohio District Board of Directors. The board unanimously extended the call on Thursday, June 26, 2025.

Levy serves as Executive Director of Luther Memorial School (LMS) in Cleveland. With more than 10 years of experience as a school administrator, Levy is the most senior school administrator among the Ohio Lutheran schools.

Levy did her undergraduate of Concordia University Ann Arbor. She also holds a Masters of School Administration from Cleveland State University.

In order to support LMS during this transition, Levy will start her new position September 1, 2025. The transition will be completed October 31, 2025.