Credit unions focus on their collective mission of "people over profits." They reinvest their profits directly into their members and communities, maximizing charitable impact.

The "credit union difference" is the fundamental differences that make credit unions a preferred choice for members and staff. We believe in people over profit, and that impacts the way we do business. Scan for more!

"I believe in the philosophy of "people helping people" and love the sense of collaboration and community that being a part of a credit union provides."

"I have been a credit union member for the majority of my life because as a young child, I saw how a credit union helped my parents when things got tough. Since then, I have worked for a credit union for 18 years and wouldn't consider working anywhere else. I love that credit unions help people in need and help people with their financial journey."

"My credit union is here for its members, and we do everything we can to make sure they are satisfied and happy. I love my community and want to be able to help them daily with all their financial needs."

> "Every day, we get to witness our mission in action and see the difference we are making in people's lives. It's for this reason that I love being a part of an organization that really cares about its members and our community."

> "To me it's giving a personal touch to banking with a memorable feeling. It's sharing knowledge that helps members reach their financial goals and offers solutions to aid in their financial well-being. It means opportunities to grow within an organization and be involved in the communities and nonprofits."

> "Helping others gives me joy. What better platform to share my knowledge from my own experiences and what I have learned throughout my career? If you love to serve others and you truly care, a credit union will be a great fit for you."
