

Celebrating Our Class of 2017!

Sam Brashears (Wake Forest University)

Sam majored in English with a dual minor in chemistry and biology. He plans to attend medical school and become an emergency room physician.

Matthew Johann Grimm (University of Tennessee)

Matthew graduated with a degree in nursing. He plans a career as a nurse practitioner after obtaining a masters degree in nursing. He also plans to continue his work in the ministry.

Dustin Cole Howser (Vanderbilt University)

Dustin graduated Summa Cum Laude with a degree in mechanical engineering. He has accepted a position with Lockheed Martin in Fort Worth, Texas as an Aeronautical engineer. He is a member of the F-16/F-22 Integrated Fighter Group (IFG).

Raini Mae Rowenhorst (East Tennessee State University)

Raini majored in Anthropology and minored in Culture and Health. Her future plan is to obtain a masters degree in Public Health and later work for a non-profit and apply anthropological theories as an approach to community health in East Tennessee.

Matthew Stephen Sheppard (Clemson University)

Matthew graduated with a degree in Industrial Engineering. He plans to attend Clemson University Graduate School for the MS program in Mechanical Engineering.

Kaitlyn "Katie" Joy Shields (University of Tennessee)

Katie graduated with a degree in ALEC (agriculture, leadership, education, and communication). She plans to teach agriculture in the Pigeon Forge Tennessee area.