Re: Resume Submission for Leadership Roles in Attorney General's Office

Background

The Attorney General serves as the chief civil legal officer of the State of Connecticut. Empowered by the Connecticut Constitution and General Statutes, the Attorney General is charged with representing the interests of the citizens of Connecticut in all civil legal matters involving the state to protect the public interest. In addition, the Attorney General serves as legal counsel to all state agencies. The Office of the Attorney General is divided into various departments, covering a variety of issue areas.

Resume Submission

The transition team of Attorney General-Elect William Tong is currently receiving resumes for individuals interested in leadership roles in the Office of the Attorney General. Resumes should be sent to transition@williamtong.com. Resumes must be received by the close of business on Friday November 30, 2018.

The Office of the Attorney General is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity employer and we welcome applications from all qualified candidates.
