Lighting of the Wreath Candles

The first, second, and third candles are lit

Lighter: Christ be our light. As we light this candle for all God's people, we accept the joy and the challenge of being God-bearers. We say "yes" to God's offering of the unknown. God, as we wait for your promise give light, hope, peace, and joy.

People: God fill us with joy on the path of life you have made known to us. Give us the generosity of spirit to lift up those with heavy hearts, hold them gently, and walk with them. God, bless us with joy.

Bidding Prayer

Rev. Susan Moss

Dear People of God: In the season of Advent, it is our responsibility and joy to prepare ourselves to hear once more the message of the Angels, to go even to Bethlehem and see the Son of God lying in a manger with the innocence and wonder of a child. Teach us to be present in the dimness while we anxiously anticipate the light.

Help us listen like our first time, let us hear and heed in Holy Scripture the story of the God's loving purpose from the time of our rebellion against God until the glorious redemption brought to us by his holy Child Jesus; and let us look forward to the yearly remembrance of his birth with hymns and songs of praise.

But first, let us pray for the needs of the whole world; for peace and justice on the earth; for the unity and mission of the Church, in our country and in this city.

And because God particularly loves them, let us remember in God's name, the present day Mary and Joseph - poor and helpless; the homeless neighbor - the cold, the hungry and the oppressed; the person at your table - the sick and those who mourn; the shut-in - the lonely and the unloved; the forgotten - the elders, and the little children - lost and exploited, or near your side; as well as those who do not know and love the Lord Jesus Christ.

Finally, let us remember before God, God's Mother Mary, and that whole multitude which no one can number, whose hope was in the Word made flesh, and whom, in Jesus, we are one for evermore.

May God bless us with grace; Christ give us the joys of everlasting life; and the Spirit renew us. Amen.

First Lesson

Genesis 3: 8-15 -

Congregation – Lead by Vonda Humburg

<sup>8</sup> Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden. <sup>9</sup> But the LORD God called to the man, "Where are you?" <sup>10</sup> He answered, "I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid." <sup>11</sup> And he said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?" <sup>12</sup> The man said, "The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it." <sup>13</sup> Then the LORD God said to the woman, "What is this you have done?" The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate." <sup>14</sup> So the LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, 'Cursed are you above all livestock and all wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life.' <sup>15</sup> And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring<sup>[a]</sup> and hers; he will crush<sup>[b]</sup> your head, and you will strike his heel."
