OPENING COLLECT

Adapted from Episcopal Diocese of Washington Prayers for Stewardship

Officiant God be with you.
People And also with you.

Officiant O Lord, Giver of Life and Source of Freedom; all we have is received from your hand. You call us to be stewards of your Abundance, the caretakers of all you have entrusted to our care. Help us to use your gifts wisely. Teach us to share them generously. May our faithful stewardship be a witness to the love of Jesus in our lives. We pray with grateful hearts in his name. Amen.

FIRST MESSAGE

Deuteronomy 6:1-9

Reader Let us prepare ourselves to hear the Word of God.
People Our hearts and minds are open.

Moses said: Now this is the commandment--the statutes and the ordinances--that the Lord your God charged me to teach you to observe in the land that you are about to cross into and occupy, so that you and your children and your children's children, may fear the Lord your God all the days of your life, and keep all his decrees and his commandments that I am commanding you, so that your days may be long. Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe them diligently, so that it may go well with you, and so that you may multiply greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, as the Lord, the God of your ancestors, has promised you. Hear, O Israel: The Lord is our God, the Lord alone. You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. Keep these words that I am commanding you today in your heart. Recite them to your children and talk about them when you are at home and when you are away, when you lie down and when you rise. Bind them as a sign on your hand, fix them as an emblem on your forehead, and write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Mark 12:28-34

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

One of the scribes came near and heard the Saducees disputing with one another, and seeing that Jesus answered them well, he asked him, "Which commandment is the first of all?" Jesus answered, "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel: the Lord our God, the Lord is one; you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.' The second is this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these." Then the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher; you have truly said that 'he is one, and besides him there is no other'; and 'to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the strength,' and 'to love one's neighbor as oneself,' —this is much more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices." When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." After that no one dared to ask him any question.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH AND BAPTISMAL PROMISES

Officiant Let us stand and affirm our faith.

People We believe that God is present in the darkness before dawn;
 in the waiting and uncertainty where fear and courage join hands, conflict and caring link arms, and the sun rises over barbed wire.

We believe in a with-us God who sits down in our midst to share our humanity, a feasting God.

We affirm a faith, that takes us beyond a safe place into action, into vulnerability, into the streets.

We commit ourselves to work for change and put ourselves on the line;
 to bear responsibility, to take risks, live powerfully and face humiliation;
 to stand with those on the edge;
 to choose life and be used by the Spirit for God's new community of Hope. Amen.

From Iona Abbey Worship Book by The Iona Community

Officiant And now, we join together with members of the worldwide Anglican/Episcopal Communion in translating the beliefs in our hearts into action in our lives, in these baptismal questions. Please respond to each promise by saying, "I will with God's help."

 For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

A PRAYER OF ST. CHRYSOSTOM

Officiant Almighty God, you have given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication to you; and you have promised through your well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name you will be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, our desires and petitions as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of your truth, and in the age to come life everlasting. Amen.

BENEDICTION

Officiant and People Life is short, and we haven't much time to gladden the hearts of those who travel with us along the way. So be quick to love, make haste to be kind--and the blessing of God goes with us.
