GOSPEL

Mark 10:46-52

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus and his disciples came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, "Son of David, have mercy on me!" Jesus stood still and said, "Call him here." And they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart; get up, he is calling you." So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. Then Jesus said to him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "My teacher, let me see again." Jesus said to him, "Go; your faith has made you well." Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH AND BAPTISMAL PROMISES

Iona Abbey Worship Book

Lay Leader Let us stand and affirm our faith.

People We believe that God is present in the darkness before dawn;
in the waiting and uncertainty where fear and courage join hands, conflict and caring link arms, and the sun rises over barbed wire.
We believe in a with-us God who sits down in our midst to share our humanity, a feasting God.

We affirm a faith, that takes us beyond a safe place into action, into vulnerability, into the streets.

We commit ourselves to work for change and put ourselves on the line;
to bear responsibility, to take risks, live powerfully and face humiliation;
to stand with those on the edge;
to choose life and be used by the Spirit for God's new community of Hope. Amen.

Lay Leader And now we join together with members of the worldwide Anglican/Episcopal Communion in translating the beliefs in our hearts into action in our lives, in these baptismal questions.
Please respond to each promise by saying, "I will with God's help."

SAINT MARY'S COMMUNITY PRAYERS: CONCERNS AND THANKSGIVINGS

Everyone is invited to offer concerns and thanksgivings.

Lay Leader Hear our prayers most gracious God, for the people of Saint Mary's, who thank you for setting us at tasks that demand our best efforts, leading us to accomplishments that satisfy and delight us. In this season of transition and discernment, we seek the Spirit's guidance and wisdom for important decisions ahead. We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Word and Wisdom of God. Amen.

O God, by your Holy Spirit you have made us one with your saints in heaven and on earth: Grant that we may always be supported by this fellowship of love and prayer, and know ourselves to be surrounded by their witness to your power and mercy. We ask this in the name of Jesus, in whom we live and move and have our being. Amen.

FAREWELL PRAYER FOR THE REVEREND CAROL ARNEY

Celebrant As we send you forth from Saint Mary's, we do so rejoicing in the knowledge that what you had to give, we gladly received, and what you needed from us, we gladly offered. Together, we celebrated each other's joys and comforted each other's sorrows. Over the years, we came together in work and study, singing and praying with one another through the seasons and cycles of our Christian life. Together, we patterned our lives after Christ, learning to walk in his ways of compassion and justice, inviting all people to God's holy table. As you leave Saint Mary's, know that you go with our love and the assurance that we will always be connected as a part of God's beloved community, the Body of Christ.

May you be blessed in your going and blessed upon arriving in Hawai'i, in the name of the Creator, the Redeemer, and the Sustainer of Life. Amen.

Please stand as you are able.
