The Lessons

Reader Let us prepare ourselves to hear the Word of God as it comes to use from the Rev. Dr. Michael K. Marsh.

(from "That They May All Be One", sermon by Rev. Dr. Michael Marsh, rector of St. Philip's Episcopal Church in Uvalde, Texas.)

People Our hearts and minds are open.

Reader Jesus does not pray for our tolerance, our getting along, or just being nice to each other. He does not even pray that our differences would be eliminated. Instead he prays for our oneness. He prays that we would be one as he and the Creator are one so that our oneness would be the revelation of God's presence to the world. Oneness in the midst of difference becomes a sacramental presence of God's life in the world.

That does not mean, however, that we lose our identity or individuality. Jesus does not stop being Jesus and the Creator because they are one. Oneness is less about numbers and quantity and more qualitative. Jesus and the Creator are one because they love and give themselves to each other. Oneness is a quality of life – God's life. Jesus' prayer for oneness is ultimately that we would be and live like God.

Oneness is not about eliminating differences. It is about love. Love is the only thing that can ever overcome division. Over and over Jesus tells us that.

- Love God.
- Love your neighbor.
- Love yourself.
- Love your enemy.

A reading from John.

John 17: 20-26

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Officiant

Jesus prayed for his disciples, and then he said. "I ask not only on behalf of these, but also on behalf of those who will believe in me through their word, that they may all be one. As you, Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be in us, so that the world may believe that you have sent me. The glory that you have given me I have given them, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may become completely one, so that the world may know that you have sent me and have loved them even as you have loved me. Father, I desire that those also, whom you have given me, may be with me where I am, to see my glory, which you have given me because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

"Righteous Father, the world does not know you, but I know you; and these know that you have sent me. I made your name known to them, and I will make it known, so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them."

Affirmation of Faith

*Officiant
People*

Let us affirm our faith.

You, O God, are supreme and holy.

You create our world and give us life.

Your purpose overarches everything we do.

You have always been with us.

You are God.

You, O God, are infinitely generous, good beyond all measure.

You came to us before we came to you.

You have revealed and proved Your love for us in Jesus Christ,

Who lived and died and rose again.

You are with us now.

A New Zealand Prayer Book

You are God.
You, O God, are Holy Spirit.
You empower us to be your gospel in the world.
You reconcile and heal; you overcome death.
You are our God.
We worship You. Amen.

Prayers of the People

St. Mary's Worship and Music Teams

Officiant Dearest Jesus, even death cannot entrap you. Risen from the tomb, you are with us still; we see you everywhere.

In the golden sun rising from the east,
In the tenderness of a newborn's grip,
In the transformation of things old becoming new,

People You rise again in a spirit of Justice,
You rise again in a spirit of Love,
We rise anew in your spirit of Justice,
We rise anew in your spirit of love.

Officiant In flashes of insight and leaps of imagination,
In challenges that demand our best selves,
In time spent in the service of others,

People You rise again... (etc)

Officiant In perfume of lilacs and newly tilled gardens,
In works of art that stir our souls,
In warming embers of faithful friendships,

People

You rise again...

Officiant

In those who risk much for the common good,
In passion to bring peace to the world,
In wealth released to bring dignity to all,

People

You rise again...

Officiant

In courage mustered to do a hard thing,
In the open door beckoning a better way,
In confessions offered and forgiveness given,

People

You rise again...

Officiant

In relief from suffering,
In restoring of health and hope,
In your embrace extended to those who die,

People

You rise again...
