WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Word of God

OPENING ACCLAMATION & COLLECT

Priest Alleluia. Blessed be the one, holy, and living God.

People Glory to God forever and ever. Alleluia.

Priest God of strange authority, whose questions challenge the powers of this world: teach us to look beyond appearance, to see your kingly rule emptying itself in cross-stretched arms, through Jesus Christ, the only Lord, the humble Servant. Amen.

FIRST MESSAGE Psalm 146

Lay Leader Let us prepare ourselves to hear the Word of God.

People Our hearts and minds are open.

- Lay Leader
- 1 Hallelujah!
Praise the Lord, O my soul! *
I will praise the Lord as long as I live;
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.
 - 2 Put not your trust in rulers, nor in any child of earth, *
for there is no help in them.
 - 3 When they breathe their last, they return to earth, *
and in that day their thoughts perish.
 - 4 Happy are they who have the God of Jacob for their help! *
whose hope is in the Lord their God;
 - 5 Who made heaven and earth, the seas, and all that is in them; *
who keeps his promise for ever;

- 6 Who gives justice to those who are oppressed, *
and food to those who hunger.
- 7 The Lord sets the prisoners free;
the Lord opens the eyes of the blind; *
the Lord lifts up those who are bowed down;
- 8 The Lord loves the righteous;
the Lord cares for the stranger; *
he sustains the orphan and widow,
but frustrates the way of the wicked.
- 9 The Lord shall reign for ever, *
your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.
Hallelujah!

Lay Leader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

GRADUAL #2 – Our Stories

Words/Music: Paul Friesen-Carper
Harmonization adapted; Jim May

GOSPEL Luke 16:19-31

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Deacon Jesus said, "There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man's table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.' But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.' He said, 'Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father's house—for I have five brothers—that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.' Abraham replied, 'They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.’ He said, ‘No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’ He said to him, ‘If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.’”

Deacon
People The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Christ.

HOMILY The Reverend Lindsey R. Briggs, Rector

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH Iona Abbey Worship Book & 1979 Book of Common Prayer

Priest Please stand in body or in spirit as we affirm our faith.
People We believe that God is present in the darkness before dawn;
in the waiting and uncertainty where fear and courage join hands, conflict and caring link arms, and the sun rises over barbed wire.
We believe in a with-us God who sits down in our midst to share our humanity, a feasting God.
We affirm a faith, that takes us beyond a safe place into action,
into vulnerability, into the streets.
We commit ourselves to work for change and put ourselves on the line;
to bear responsibility, to take risks,
live powerfully and face humiliation;
to stand with those on the edge;
to choose life and be used by the Spirit for God’s new community of Hope. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer I, Enriching Our Worship

Priest God be with you.

People And also with you.

Priest Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to God.

Priest Let us give thanks to God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Priest It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, Source of life and fountain of kindness. You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Christ and knit us into one body.

People Through your Spirit, you replenish us and call us to fullness of life.

Priest Therefore, joining with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing,

SANCTUS Santo

Santo, Santo, Santo! Mi corazon te-adora!
Mi corazon te sabe decir; Santo-eres Senor!
Holy, holy, holy! My heart, my heart adores you.
My heart knows how to say to you: Holy are you, O Lord.

Priest Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life.

People You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.

Priest You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.

People But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves.

Priest We would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love.

People Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people.

Priest Through Abraham, Hagar, and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.

Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to live the life you called him to, he overcame death, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: this is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Priest Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of those who've gone before us, that with Mary and all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever.

Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. Amen.

PRAYER FOR SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

Priest For those worshiping with us virtually today, let us now say together the Prayer for Spiritual Communion.

All Gracious God, you stand at the door of our hearts and knock. You wait for us and we only can let you in. We believe and trust in you and ask you now to fill us with your presence. Nourish us with your body and unite us in your blood, that we may be your blessing to a world in need. Amen.

LORD'S PRAYER

Priest And now, as Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,
All *Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be your Name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.*

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

A period of silence is kept.

Priest We break this bread to share in the Body of Christ.
People We who are many are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Please be seated.
