

Lab Resource Group

Facilitating communication between researchers and greater the UCSF community.

Some of the things we do:

- Award professional development scholarships to lab managers.
- Host an annual luncheon for lab managers to meet campus representatives.
- Host a listserv and a website to communicate news to the research community.

To join, send a one-line email with no subject to listserv@listsrv.ucsf.edu The one line of the message is: subscribe LABMNGRGROUP firstname lastname. Delete all other content from the body of the message.

There is also the Lab Manager Teams channel: For sharing resources and to foster more direct communication between labs.

To Join the Lab Manager Resource Teams group go to: LabManager Teams

If you already use Teams, you can find the group by name or join code: Name: Lab Resource Group Join Code: pqm8wlh
