Your Boutique Checklist

Not everything is boutique!

Think specialty shopping before the invention of the internet!

Higher Retail Price with Limited Availability

Comes from a boutique or specialty children's brand

Typically retails at a higher price point ($30+ for sleepers is common)

Not sold at big-box or department stores (Target, Walmart, Kohl's, etc.)

Not homemade

Fibers, Quality, & Feel

Ultra-soft, drapery, and noticeably different from standard cotton

Feels lightweight but substantial—not thin or worn

Holds shape and softness even after washing

Exceptional Condition

Virtually no wash wear, pilling, or fading

Snaps, zippers, and seams are in excellent condition

Looks "boutique-ready," not everyday play wear

⊘ Probably NOT Boutique Bamboo If:

It's a common brand widely available in department stores

The tag lists bamboo as a minor blend

It's priced like basics when new

It looks or feels similar to standard cotton clothing

Boutique Guidelines

No limits at this time.

The onesie requirement of 3 to a hanger will not apply in boutique, but any item that is a single onesie that is not deemed boutique will be returned (or donated) at the end of the sale. It will NOT be transferred to the clothing racks.

Boutique is for clothing, accessories and shoes $30 or more. (See customer service at drop off if questions)

The “no more than 3 items per hanger unless it is a set” WILL apply for boutique.

Seasonal restrictions will apply.
