

SOAR

SOAR has partnered with the Kentucky Department for Public Health's Office of Health Equity to host the first-ever Appalachian Nursing Academy.

APPALACHIAN NURSING ACADEMY

Application deadline

May 13

June 12–25
University of Pikeville

APPALACHIAN NURSING ACADEMY students will spend two weeks participating in numerous workshops, presentations, and activities designed to help them develop the skills needed to be successful applicants to nursing programs. Students will also be paired with a mentor who will work with them during the summer program and through the following school year, serving as a source of guidance and knowledge.

WHO SHOULD APPLY

- Junior and senior high school students interested in pursuing a career in nursing

ADVANTAGES

- NO COST
- Housing at the University of Pikeville
- All meals included
- Interactive programming with workshops, shadowing, tours, etc.
- $1,500 scholarship upon completion

ELIGIBILITY

- Reside in one of Kentucky's 54 Appalachian counties
- High school junior or senior

Apply
Now!

Deadline is May 13.

