Topic: Only Hope: My Mother and the Holocaust Brought to Light

Description: Before she passed away in 1974, Felicia Bornstein Lubliner wrote about her internment in Polish ghettos and two Nazi concentration camps, Auschwitz and Gross-Rosen. Her powerful stories have recently been published by her son, Irv Lubliner, an emeritus Southern Oregon University professor and OLLI instructor. He will share excerpts from Only Hope: A Survivor's Stories of the Holocaust, shedding light on his mother's experiences and indomitable spirit, as well as his experience as a child of Holocaust survivors and his process in bringing the book to fruition.

Date: Tuesday, October 20

Time: 3:00–4:30 PM

Facilitator: Irving Lubliner

RSVP: Reservations are required, and honored on a first response basis. The maximum number of participants for this event is 45, OLLI members only. RSVP by 3:30 on Monday, October 19. Click here to RSVP.

Topic: The Power of One

Description: The Power of One, by Bryce Courtney, follows the development of a young South African boy into adulthood. He learns through unique experiences with people and from surprising mentors how to have “the courage to remain separate and to think through to the truth... to have an independent spirit” (his power). It made me wonder “What’s my power?” WHAT’S YOUR POWER? How has your power impacted your life or the lives of others?
